

Flo All Ready For Big Swim

World Champion Attempts 32-Mile Ontario Lake Challenge Monday

By DON HUNT, Times Special Correspondent

TORONTO—Channel swimming champion Florence Chadwick will tackle the longest swim of her career on Monday, but she thinks it will be easier than the Strait of Juan de Fuca which defeated her Aug. 9.

FLO CHADWICK

Her swim across Lake Ontario will be 32 miles and she expects to be 18 hours in the water.

It is fresh water, harder to swim in than salt, but the lack of currents, swells and tide, and higher temperature make it easier, she says.

Present plan is for Miss Chadwick to enter the water of Lake Ontario at Youngstown, New York, at 11 o'clock Monday night and, if she makes it she'll come out of the water on the Canadian National Exhibition waterfront at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

To get in shape, she's been swimming daily at least 10 miles in five hours.

In addition she's practicing near Youngstown at the Niagara River mouth, about the only spot in the swim where currents could foul her up.

The CNE swim will be Miss Chadwick's longest attempt. It will keep her in the water longer than ever before.

WATER WARM

"I'm anxious to find out if the advantages of fresh water outweigh the disadvantages. I won't know until Tuesday night whether the lake swim will prove to be a greater obstacle and challenge. Right now, I think I'll make it because the water is warm—about 60°."

That may be warm for Miss Chadwick, but Torontonians shiver when they think of any one swimming for 18 hours in Lake Ontario. A change of wind can shoot the temperature down to the mid-50's and Florence admits if it gets below that, she'll be in trouble.

The $10,000 Lake Ontario swim, sponsored by the Canadian National Exhibition, was supposed to be Flo's last. It has never been done by anyone.

But she said the 183 miles of ice-cold water between Victoria and Port Angeles is the one thing keeping her from making her retirement from channel swimming permanent. She plans to make another effort at it next summer.

"It's the Mount Everest of channel swimming. Conquer it and you have nothing worth conquering left," she said after doing her daily grind in preparation for her Labor Day attempt.

"That's a real challenge and I just can't retire without trying again. And this time I'm confident I can make it."

NOT IMPOSSIBLE

To Flo nothing is impossible, that includes the swim with a water temperature of 46°.

"I figure I can only stay in water that cold for ten hours. I was making no headway."

Next time, I intend to practice more in cold water and have the local experts chart the best course. Last time, they said I was following the wrong route and they were right."

That's a big thing to long distance swimmers. The wrong course means failure. The right one, a possible record.

Unless the lake swim changes her mind, right now she rates the Strait of Juan de Fuca toughest, Gibraltar second. Seems, the English Channel runs a poor fourth.

After the lake swim, Flo intends to take a lengthy vacation in Hawaii.

"It'll be nice to get away from doing four hours a day but I wouldn't change things for the world. I'll be back training next year for Victoria and if I make it, I'll really retire this time. The body can only take so much."

MARILYN MAY TRY

TORONTO (BUP)—Marilyn Bell, 17-year-old swimmer, says she'll decide Sunday whether to race channel swimmer Florence Chadwick 32 miles across Lake Ontario next week.

The Canadian National Exhibition which promised Miss Chadwick $10,000 if she completed the solo swim made no provision for a contest in the swim. But Miss Bell said she may try the swim, too, if her father, Syd Bell, gives her okay.

Amateur Athlete of the Year

Lacrosse is king sport of the moment and the reigning monarch who has done so much to make it so is Fred "Whitey" Severson of the Shamrocks. Severson Wednesday night was presented with the Victoria Daily Times "Amateur Athlete of the Year" award for 1953-54. Presentation of the award was made by Times Managing Editor Les Fox between halves of Wednesday's playoff lacrosse game between PNE Indians and Victoria Shamrocks. Shortly after the ceremony Severson scored a goal, but it wasn't enough as the Rocks went down to a 12-9 defeat. (Times photo by Halkett.)

Ringleader Held In Philippines

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines army announced tonight it has broken a "sinister Communist espionage ring" trying to sabotage the Southeast Asia security conference opening here Monday.

The army said Dr. Hong Ki Khung, alias Kyung Ki Chang, 35-year-old Korean national, is under arrest in connection with the plot.

The doctor had "voluminous papers pertaining to mechanics and organizational procedures of the forthcoming SEATO conference, including drafts of various proposals of participating nations..." the army said. The announcement added intelligence agents of three governments have established that the doctor is "a member of a gigantic international espionage ring organized specifically to spy on the forthcoming top-level talks..."

SEEK PACIFIC CHARTER

The arrest came as the Philippines sought action by fighting committees on a "Pacific Charter" against Communist aggression.

President Ramon Magsaysay said he will seek adoption by the conference opening here Monday of a four-power charter pledging the eight countries to:

1. Support the rights of all peoples in Southeast Asia to freedom and independence.
2. Take steps insuring the progress of Southeast Asian countries toward self-rule and independence.
3. Work jointly for economic, social and cultural development of Southeast Asian countries to raise standards of living and to strengthen their economies and social security programs.
4. Act jointly and individually against any force that would attempt to undermine or destroy the sovereignty, territorial integrity or freedom of Southeast Asian governments.

Immigration Official Defends Department

Fortier Answers Critics of Immigration Policy Claimed 'Shocking' Procedure

WINNIPEG (CP)—A federal government official said today no immediate changes are planned in the procedure, followed at overseas offices of the federal immigration department, which came under sharp criticism Wednesday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association.

Laval Fortier, deputy minister of citizenship and immigration, said in an interview the immigration act is constantly being studied but the department sees no need at present for a change.

A three-man sub-committee of the bar association which has spent 2½ years investigating abuses in immigration procedure charged that the department had been guilty of "shocking" procedural practices in its worldwide offices. Results of the investigation were revealed by sub-committee chairman J. H. McDonald of Ottawa.

(See story, Page 6)

Commenting on the criticism, Mr. Fortier said immigration inspectors are like judges—one might decide one way while in the same circumstances another might decide the opposite way.

The inspectors must decide a case on both the facts and the merit of the individual before them. Sometimes one inspector might decide a man was sincere and another inspector might decide he was lying.

Labor Group Leaders See 'Less Rigidity in China'

HONG KONG (AP)—Clement Attlee disclosed today that he countered appeals by Red China's Mao Tse-tung that he try to engineer a shift in United States foreign policy by suggesting Mao urge Russia to mend her ways.

The former British prime minister, just arrived with 11 other touring British Labor party leaders from an 18-day visit in Red China and three days in Moscow, revealed for the first time details of his talk with Mao.

He said when Mao urged that the British Labor men try to influence the U.S. to pull out of the Pormosa straits and cease rearming Japan and West Germany, he, Attlee, suggested in turn that the Chinese Communist chief use his influence with the Kremlin to try to make Russia:

1. Give her people more freedom.
2. Ease restrictions on her satellite states.
3. Stop trying to undermine other governments.
4. Reduce Soviet armaments.

Attlee said neither he nor Mao made any promises regarding the other's proposals.

MORE TOLERANT

Commenting on his tour, Attlee said he had found Chinese communism more tolerant than the Soviet variety. He said the Chinese Reds are slower and more careful in absorbing businesses, industry and farms.

"There is less rigidity in China than in Russia," he declared.

Anearin Bevan and six other members of the party left by plane to visit Tokyo today. Attlee will remain here until Saturday, then fly to Singapore and Australia.

NOT MUCH 'EYEWASH'

Attlee said he had found Red China about what he expected, and that the "eyewash" was not excessive.

This was an apparent reference to his pre-departure statement in London that he was an expert on "eyewash" and would not be fooled by conducted tours, false statistics and unsubstantiated claims.

"We found China run by the Communist party on principles on which we do not agree. We tried to understand their point of view and we drew certain conclusions. One was that the Communists are making great reforms in China and this is a new departure in a government in that nation."

"We found the government incorruptible. We were impressed with the remarkable work in public health and especially with their anti-fly campaign."

IMMENSE TASK

Attlee said China's Red leaders face an immense task and, in contrast to the Russians, they make no pretence about it.

They admit they have a great deal to do yet and that there are many shortcomings. In Russia they tell you the whole world is inferior to Russia and things Russian are the best. I heard no such boasting in China."

He said the British delegation found "all kinds of delusions" among the Chinese about the West.

Attlee said also that China is "heading toward a terrible problem if population increases persist."

Nova Scotia Prepares for Hurricane Hit

HALIFAX, N.S. (BUP)—

Hurricane Dolly, sweeping up the Atlantic Coast, threatened today to force the air force to divert the course of the luxury liner carrying the Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess Alexandra, to the Maritime.

The royal visitors were scheduled to reach Halifax late this afternoon, but the RCAF said their plane might be ordered to land at the Greenwood, N.S., air force base if weather conditions at Dartmouth indicated it would be safer to make a switch.

Hurricane Dolly was reported moving toward this area at 28 miles an hour, but some distance seaward of its predecessor Carol which turned land two days ago to go on a spree of destruction in eastern Canada and the United States.

Weather officials said it was too soon to indicate whether the new storm would switch its course landward.

Canada Favors Early Meeting Of NATO Council

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has informed its NATO partners that it favors an early and special meeting of the North Atlantic council to discuss the German question.

Officials said today Canada's view has been made known through embassies and legations abroad to the other 13 North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries.

The North Atlantic council is scheduled to hold its regular full-dress annual meeting in Paris in December. Canada feels that in light of French rejection of the European Defense Community, a special meeting should be held earlier.

No date was specified by Canada but officials said they believed the meeting of foreign ministers should be held at least by early October.

Lawyers Rap Civil Liberty 'Violations'

Ontario Group Maintains State Interfering in Private Lives

WINNIPEG (BUP)—The Civil Liberties Committee of the Canadian Bar Association was told Wednesday there were many violations of human rights in courts across Canada, and the Ontario section charged the state was interfering more and more in the lives and affairs of people.

Although briefs were presented only by Ontario and Prince Edward Island, a British Columbia spokesman said discussions had been held in the West Coast group on 25 instances of alleged violations of civil liberties, and the Quebec delegation said it was making a list of infringements on civil liberties under the Business Act since 1941.

John Diefenbaker, Conservative member of parliament for Prince Albert, Sask., said one point of discussion in his province's group concerned Communism and the law.

"Is the criminal law regarding sedition sufficiently strong enough to cover the Communist threat?" Diefenbaker asked. "And if not, how can we put teeth into it?" There was no discussion on the question.

The Prince Edward Island legislature's move in putting repeated, back in force again and additionally making it retroactive, was cited in the brief as a violation.

The Ontario submission suggested that powers conferred on the more important of the existing tribunals be re-examined to make sure that no power is being wielded unwisely. The committee also suggested a study be made of the possibility of establishing a statutory code to cover a code for the operation of tribunals, administrative boards and government agencies.

Dean—Betrayers Get Light Sentences

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—Two South Koreans accused of betraying Major Gen. William F. Dean to the Communists got off with light sentences today because the American war hero pleaded for leniency.

The Seoul court of appeals reduced their sentences (one had been sentenced to die) to five years' imprisonment.

Bus Service Reduction Blamed on Car Owners

Transit Union Head Against Drivers Offering Free Lifts

Blame for the possible reduction on B.C. Electric transit service for this area should go to private car owners who pick up fellow workers, says transit union leader John McNeill.

"Car owners are still following the wartime practice of taking others to work and it is causing hardship on transit drivers," said Mr. McNeill of the Street Railwaymen's Union, at Wednesday night's meeting of the Victoria District Trades and Labor Council (AFL-TLC).

He indicated the 8 per cent reduced service will go into effect on Oct. 1 if permission is granted by the Public Utilities Commission.

"We are in danger of having up to 12 men laid off through the private car pickup," charged Mr. McNeill.

"That was fine during wartime to save on gas and tires, but it is not necessary today," he told the union representatives.

"In the first place, the practice is unlawful. If the drivers who pick them up are in accidents passengers will receive nothing because they are not in licensed passenger vehicles," Mr. McNeill said.

He said drivers of buses see private car owners pick up anywhere from one to five persons each day "and that is probably the reason why the number of people carried by buses has slipped from 35,000 five years ago to 26,000 today."

Mr. McNeill said the biggest private car offenders were those who take fellow workers to HMC Dockyard or Yarrow's Shipyards "probably at the wartime rate of 75 cents a head per week."

He said he could remember when the company put on 21 special buses each morning.

"Now it has been reduced to 11."

"I can assure you that the BCE will put on more buses if the people are there to warrant it," said Mr. McNeill.

"In speaking the way I am."

New Riots at Kingston, Jamaica, Put Down

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—Seventy police used tear gas Wednesday night to beat back an attempt by rioting prisoners to storm the main gate of the general penitentiary. The outbreak was the second in the prison in six days. The trouble came at the end of a restless day when several prisoners broke out of their cells and smashed other doors. Twenty finally broke loose from the cell block and tried to force the outer gate.

NEARLY 7,000 EXPECTED

Arena Seating Augmented For Archbishop's Services

Upwards of 7,000 persons are expected to fill Memorial Arena, Sept. 12 when Most Reverend Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, will present the address.

All seats have been taken for the giant public service and applications for 600 seats more than are available have been received.

An additional 1,500 extra chairs will be set up on the main floor to swell seating capacity to 6,927, one of the largest assemblies ever to gather in the five-year-old building.

Archbishop H. E. Sexton has requested that parishioners holding undistributed seat tickets should turn them in as soon as possible in an effort to accommodate additional demand.

Blast Aboard U.K. Carrier Eagle Kills Scientist

DEVONPORT, Eng. (UP)—Fume-filled gas tanks on Britain's largest aircraft carrier, HMS Eagle, exploded today killing one man and critically injuring another.

However, Royal Navy and Devonport city firemen prevented a fire started by the explosion from spreading through the 36,800-ton carrier.

Officers said that damage to the ship was "negligible."

The blast occurred when two admiralty scientists, Kenneth Thom, 28, and Edward Gore, 18, were testing empty aviation fuel tanks for fumes. The explosion killed Thom and injured Gore.

The carrier was in dock for a refitting.

The explosion was the latest in a string of disasters, some of them sabotage attempts, which have plagued the big carrier since it was commissioned in 1951.

Joe's Triple Blast Hits Chairman, Papers

McCarthy Questions Impartiality Of Senate Censure Committee Members

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy said today chairman Arthur V. Watkins of the Senate censure committee has taken the "fantastic" position that it is not necessary that committee members be impartial.

McCarthy also attacked the Washington Evening Star for what he termed "completely false reporting," and the Denver Post for being what he called "viciously anti-McCarthy."

The Wisconsin Republican's triple blast came in a statement he made for television movie cameras just outside the Senate caucus room where the committee was considering censure charges against him.

All three accusations revolved around a Denver Post story last March 12 which quoted Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) as saying that most Senate Democratic leaders "loathe Joe McCarthy." Johnson was upheld as a member of the censure committee by chairman Watkins.

McCarthy said he saw Watkins (R-Utah) on a television film Wednesday night making "the most fantastic statement I ever heard."

"I saw Watkins smilingly saying that it was all right if committee members were not impartial," McCarthy said.

"That doesn't quite tie in with repeated assurances that this would be a judicial hearing."

Adams River Silver Horde

THE ADAMS RIVER SOCKEYE are moving through the Strait up to the Fraser. Seiners and gill-nets are harvesting, in teeming thousands, the great food crop which Rex Beach called the silver horde.

Thousands more are escaping the moving traps man has created for them and will fight their way up Canada's great western river, turn into the Thompson and eventually, their numbers depleted, reach the spawning grounds above Shuswap Lake.

The miracle of the salmon's life cycle is nearing its close and man is reaping riches as the full-bodied fish pass through these waters, driven by a compelling urge to the shallows from which they came.

This is a story repeated as the fish return to their rivers. It is vitally important to the commercial life of the country and particularly gratifying in the case of the Adams River run.

Man's heedlessness threatened to kill the Adams River Sockeye. Years ago, logging in the vicinity of that waterway led to the construction of a dam. From it water was released to carry the logs with no regard whatsoever to the fish's needs as it made its way to spawning ground. To this hazard was added the obstacle of the rock slides—some man-made—in the Fraser's Hell's Gate. The two impediments depleted the Adams River stock to a point where it was negligible in the province's fisheries economy.

Eventually logging interests, having cut their timber, found little use for the Adams River or the dam. The dam deteriorated. The flow of water returned to the rhythm of seasonal variation. The Sockeye which could battle its way up the Fraser and the Thompson found spawning conditions satisfactory in the old grounds. The run began slowly to build up again.

With the installation of fish ladders at Hell's Gate salmon moved more easily upstream. The Adams run grew. This year, following its four-year cycle, it has apparently reached record proportions. Man has repaired in large measure the damage he had done. And as long as he allows enough fish to pass through—as long as he permits an adequate escapement—the run can be expected to increase.

Each year some salmon spawn in the Adams River, as they do in other salmon streams throughout B.C. Every four years comes the big run. This is the big one for the Adams, just as last year brought peaks to the Quesnel River and Stuart Lake.

The importance of protecting those runs is apparent today in the salt water reaching from the mouth of the Strait to the Fraser estuary. Fishermen are making their spectacular hauls because foresight has been brought to bear on the natural product of their industry through assistance to the salmon on their spawning journeys and through control of the catch to permit enough fish to get through to replenish the species.

Barring natural calamities, this is the procedure which can continue to bring dollars to all those associated with the industry and food to the hungry. It is, in graphic form, an outstanding argument for conservation and the economic justification for maintaining fisheries as self-replenishing assets.

There is another gratifying factor in the catches now being made. Market conditions, so vital an issue to the fishermen, are not now as unfavorable as some feared they might have been. Australia and New Zealand are opening up to the Canadian export. Britain will take some of the product and a short pack of pinks in the United States should provide a demand for Canadian fish.

In physical and economic returns, British Columbia, Canada and the United States, who have shared and still share in protecting the Sockeye, are receiving dividends for the work to aid the Adams River salmon.

In Far Better Trim

IT SEEMS ONLY YESTERDAY that we were reading frequent articles dealing with the perilous state of British industry and trade. Britain's gold reserves and dollar balances were continually on the brink of disaster; valiant efforts were being made to recapture foreign markets lost during the war years; austerity was the order of the day and there was serious questioning as to whether the British Isles would ever return to their pre-war prosperity.

That question may still be asked, and perhaps the answer must be partially negative.

But apart from such ultimate considerations, it can be reported that Britain's position is vastly improved. Balances and reserves have been built up to the point where the removal of arbitrary restrictions on sterling exchange is of more than academic interest. The standard of living in the United Kingdom has risen, rationing has become a thing of the past, the housing problem is slowly being surmounted. And the explanation for most of these changes is, of course, the steady expansion of British exports.

The problems that exist are many; the future is far from clear. But the fact remains that the British share of world export trade has become fairly well stabilized at 22 per cent, which is roughly what it was before the Second World War.

The situation is, however, somewhat more difficult than in those days. The growing industrialization of many countries has made them competitors of British manufacturers. Canada, for instance, not only supplies its home market with many of the products Britain formerly supplied, but competes against British goods for trade in other lands.

Germany, as before the war, is providing increasing competition in many lands. Switzerland is a growing factor in the race for markets, and the United States may yet provide the greatest competition of all. But there are compensating opportunities. The Middle East is an increasingly promising field; the Far East, despite ideological impediments, invites vast development. It is difficult to predict the course of world trade. Some brilliant selling campaigns will have to be launched if potential markets are to prove fruitful. But Britain, even though, it is not, as one writer puts it, "competing in the export race 100 per cent fit, is in far better trim than before." The tense days of near-bankruptcy seem safely passed. The nation of shopkeepers, which doubles when necessary as a nation of warriors, is once more in stride.

Another Move for Divorce Reform

BRITISH COLUMBIA REPRESENTATIVES at the Canadian Bar Association meetings in Winnipeg are again pressing for common-sense amendment of divorce laws. As they have in former years, the far west group seeks the addition of desertion, cruelty and insanity to the sole ground of adultery now accepted for severance of the marriage bonds.

Unquestionably the B.C. delegation will again point to the manner in which the law is brought into dispute by present practices which pivot on the degrading charge of marital infidelity as the only means of obtaining a divorce.

They will also underscore their suggestion that any legislative changes be framed in a way to extend only to provinces seeking amendments. In this way the provincial group hopes to avoid harsh conflict with certain areas in Canada adamantly opposed to any alteration in the existing law.

Because similar efforts have failed in former years, no buoyant hopes of federal approval for the B.C. proposals should be entertained. Whether they succeed or not, the presentation of the recommendations will again focus public attention on the need for change from an obsolete system which, by its nature, creates a festering sore in legal processes, appears to encourage collusion, evidence, perjury and shoddy manufactured testimony and reduces respect for all law.

Not So 'Classless'

COMMUNISM IN ALL ITS "classless" glory seems to have taken another bump during the visit of former British Prime Minister Attlee and his Labor Party group to the nerve-centre of Red China.

There, according to the Associated Press, the tourists were welcomed at Peking's Pavilion of Purple Light at a gathering attended by 400 prominent Chinese, headed by Premier Chou En-lai.

Among those present were "noted industrialists," labor leaders, government leaders, artists, natural scientists and representatives of minority nationalities.

It is reasonable enough to think that the hosts would wish their guests to meet the best people, "the 400." But when does a classless society become "Society" with a capital "S" and when does "classlessness" develop its own elite under communism?

A Question of Morals

THE PEOPLE of China—who are not primarily communists or Chinese or factors in some military calculation, but just plain human beings like the reader of these words—are now suffering one of the worst tragedies in their history. Thousands of them are drowning in the floods of their great rivers. Millions will starve to death this year because their rice fields are inundated.

Yet this disaster, probably the largest of its kind in modern times receives less attention and much smaller headlines than the daily posturings and screeching propaganda of the Peiping government. As usual, the world gets things out of all proportion, is obsessed with shadows while the substance goes little noted.

IT'S EASY for the public to become excited about some local person caught in tragedy, some child run over by a truck, some family's home destroyed by fire, and that instinct of pity is greatly to the public's credit. It shows that, for all the world's present obsession with such things as hydrogen bombs, people are still human beings.

When a tragedy is massive and distant, when it concerns millions of foreigners in a remote corner of the world, it is, apparently, too big, impersonal and hideous to be contemplated. Nevertheless, the current tragedy of China is worth contemplating because it concerns us who, as John Donne remarked long ago, are "part of the maine." The bell tolls for us, as for humanity.

THE EDITORS of Life are like Homer; they sometimes nod, despite their stimulating environment—as, for example, when they recently proposed a new all-American alliance excluding Britain and Canada. But in the case of China they have awakened with a start to propose a mighty stroke of international politics and of human compassion which truly are the same thing in the long run.

The United States, says Life, should rise above its political quarrel with the Peiping government and remember the Chinese people, starving among their flooded fields. It should offer to them some of the huge farm surpluses currently bulging every storehouse in the country and driving the American government to distraction.

NO ONE KNOWS what would come of such an act of generosity. We can be sure, of course, that Mr. Chou En-lai and the other experts would distort American motives one way or another. They would try to hide the source of this life-saving food. They would probably pretend that it had been produced by the miracle of local communism. It is unlikely, however, that they would refuse the gift. The communist governments of East Germany and Hungary have lately welcomed foreign charity to relieve their own flood victims, and Russia is too short of grain to spare any for outsiders.

Life's proposal cannot be considered on any calculated basis of self-interest. It should not be judged by an immediate, ascertainable result. Political motives, indeed, are the least part of it. The whole point here is moral, not political, and morals are always more important than politics.

THE POINT is not whether the gift of food to the starving is good politics or a shrewd gambit in the game of power; but solely whether we can justify our possession of surplus food while other human beings die of hunger.

The refusal to share this food may be judged wise or foolish, but that is quite irrelevant. To let people starve when we can help them is simply wrong and wicked, and no other argument is needed. For we may be sure of only one thing in this disordered world, a thing which men like Mr. Chou do not understand—that all crimes bring their punishment in time and no nation or man can escape it. The refusal to succor hungry people, when we have more food than we can use, would be such a crime and a peculiarly revolting one.

CANADA, like the United States, has a surplus of food at the moment. We, too, are bound to share it within our means. Every kind of objection will be raised to such a policy. The economists will see it as unsound economics; the financial experts as an extra load on the national budget; and Mr. Gardiner no doubt will deliver another speech at Saskatoon explaining, as he did the other day, that Asiatic peoples really are much better off than we are—apart from the minor fact that they are penniless and famished.

The free world never lived on such calculations in the past and will not survive on them in the future. It was born by an act of daring, of imagination and of simple morals. If it loses the struggle with communism it will be solely because it has lost those things in the rush.

The present case of China offers an interesting test not of our politics but of our morals; not of our power but of our right to power; not of communism but of civilization.

As Our Readers See It

CONSTRUCTIVE ACTION

Instead of Mr. Scott worrying over three kinds of Communists, he and others would serve the community better by getting behind the handicapped citizens who meet each week in the Welfare Building.

A few men and women give their time and care to bring patients stricken with polio and arthritis. It seems to me more people should be interested in people who, against great odds, are trying to help themselves. Credit is due the younger native sons and daughters who are right when they say "Victoria's younger generation, the think young men and women, don't want Victoria to be a bit of Old England." He also states, "These little thinkers have the idea that if Victoria doesn't remain Old England it will become Yankee. To coin their phrase—that's so much old tea."

Well, here is one of the old who agrees with him, but he is not nearly strong enough, and needs backing by many of our native sons and daughters, and "old uns," to put up a big fight for more justice for our native sons and daughters who are fast becoming "second fiddles" in their own provinces and Canada.

Pretty soon we will be pushed around like the native Indians have been. I can see it coming, and British Columbians and old-timers here had better wake up from their Rip Van Winkle slumbers before they find themselves, as some have found out already, that no matter how brilliant and qualified they are, outsiders have been given the best positions in our province and other parts of Canada.

As far as calling us "anti-British" let them do it. Canada has entirely earned it, for to her own Canadian flag if any country has; our men and boys have fought clean in at least three of our last wars, and it is high time we Canadians had our own distinctive flag if any country ever has, and I mean absolutely distinctive too.

The statement reads: "In recent physical tests of normal healthy school children in America, and several European countries, conducted by the Institute of Physical Medicine, New York University, it was found that 56.6% of the American youngsters failed the tests, compared with only 8.2% of similar children abroad."

"SURPRISED"

THE OLD TO THE YOUNG

May I say I was certainly very pleased to see a letter from a native son "Perplexed," age 21, giving forth his sane ideas about Old England. It is certainly time our younger native sons and daughters woke up. He is right when he says "Victoria's younger generation, the think young men and women, don't want Victoria to be a bit of Old England." He also states, "These little thinkers have the idea that if Victoria doesn't remain Old England it will become Yankee. To coin their phrase—that's so much old tea."

Well, here is one of the old who agrees with him, but he is not nearly strong enough, and needs backing by many of our native sons and daughters, and "old uns," to put up a big fight for more justice for our native sons and daughters who are fast becoming "second fiddles" in their own provinces and Canada.

The Mixed Fruits Still Mixed

BY VICTOR J. MACKIE

This special dispatch from Ottawa gives further developments in the strange battle being waged over the customs duty rates on imported canned figs.

CANADIAN fruit producers and processors have declared their intention to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada an order by Hon. J. T. Thorson, president of the Exchequer Court, in what is known as the famous case of mixed fruit that became "peaches."

It is an example of the weird and wonderful situations that can develop when a government begins to tamper with its tariff classifications.

Canadians have heard often of the strange rulings by American tariff authorities, made under pressure from protectionist groups anxious to keep out products from other countries that are too competitive. But in this case it was the Canadian government's department of national revenue that brought down a ruling in January, 1943, which has led to strenuous arguments before the Tariff Board, before the Exchequer Court, and now possibly before the Supreme Court—the highest court in the land.

As is too often the case, the Canadian consumer is the loser.

Fruit producers in this country for some time had been trying to persuade the government that the tariff against United States tins of mixed fruit, or fruit salad, was too low. The fruit salad packed across the border had been coming into Canada, up to 1953, at a rate of one cent per pound. It was admitted as "Fruits Not Otherwise Provided For" under the tariff. Peaches on the other hand were specifically mentioned in the tariff schedule and were dutiable at 2½ cents per pound.

NEW RULING—Suddenly, without explanation, the customs and excise officers in the national revenue department in January last year ruled that the imported cans of mixed fruit henceforth were to be classified as "peaches." As peaches they would pay a duty of 2½ cents a pound instead of the lower rate of one cent per pound as "Fruits N.O.P."

The importers of the U.S. fruit salad appealed to the Tariff Board. That body heard the case this spring and found in favor of the importers.

It said that the mixed fruit could not be construed as "peaches" nor was it "preserves" as argued by representatives from the department of justice. Consequently under the Tariff Board's ruling the imported mixed fruit was properly dutiable at only one cent per pound.

However, there was no move by the national revenue department to restore the old lower rate of duty. Canadian consumers went on paying the higher price for imported cans of U.S. mixed fruit, because the higher rate of duty continued to be collected.

This was due to the fact that the Canadian Horticultural Council and Canadian Food Processors' Association, immediately after the board's ruling on April 23 this year, applied to the Exchequer Court for leave to appeal against the board's decision. The Canadian government, after some hesitation, decided to go along with the fruit growers and processors and joined in the application to appeal the board's ruling to the Exchequer Court.

Mr. Justice J. T. Thorson, president of the court, heard the application from the Horticultural Council and Food Processors' Association first. He refused leave to appeal.

Notwithstanding this rejection by the court the federal government pressed forward with its application. It was heard later by Mr. Justice Thorson and he announced he would bring down written reasons for his judgment. On Aug. 23 the written judgment was released and here again the president of the Exchequer Court refused leave to appeal. Indications are that the federal government has now had enough. It is understood it will not carry the appeal any higher.

STILL REMAINED

But not so the Horticultural Council, or the Food Processors' Association. After all, the original higher tariff imposed by the customs and excise officers still remained in effect in late August, despite the fact that four months before the Tariff Board had ruled it should not have been imposed.

The longer the implementation of the Tariff Board's decision was delayed the longer the Canadian fruit producers and processors were provided with higher tariff protection against American competition.

The day after Mr. Justice Thorson brought down his written reasons for refusing leave to the fruit growers and federal government to appeal to the Exchequer Court, the Horticultural Council and Food Processors' Association filed a notice of appeal to the Supreme Court. No date has been announced as to when the case will be heard. It may not go before the court until late this year.

Meantime counsel for the importers has asked D. Sim, deputy minister for customs and excise, to restore the original lower rate of duty which the Tariff Board found should not have been abandoned. The importers' counsel in a letter under date of Aug. 24, addressed to the deputy minister, points out:

"In view of the fact that an appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada does not operate as a stay of judgment, we presume that the interpretation as made by the Tariff Board and applicable to the relevant items will now be put into effect."

It would seem that the next move in this long drawn out fight is up to the federal government.

And in the Right Order

THE TIMES (LONDON)

IT HAS been said that to spell correctly is an art; not a matter of education but of instinct.

People have averred that it requires a particular cast of mind. Some among them—their spelling potential can perhaps be inferred—have described it darkly as a peculiar cast of mind.

Spelling ability and brainpower, we are constantly reminded, bear no relation to each other. After all, did not the greatest genius in English literature have half a dozen different ways of spelling his own name?

And when our native gifts were at their highest was not the spelling then at its freest? Boswell could excuse the great Montrose by pointing out that many men of the very first rank spelt ill in the seventeenth century. In the published letters and diaries of the great there is no more familiar word—so soothing a balm is it to the inferiority complex of their editors—than the comment (sic).

All the same there is force in the saying about other days and other customs. We have to live—and, above all, to work—in the climate of our own day. It is useless to protest that custom is rather pernickety in this matter.

Fowler can rail at the "notorious difficulties" and "obtrusive untidiness" of English spelling, can hope for better days, can point out that principle is no guide, that little relief can be given, that after all the tears have been shed "nothing short of a complete spelling book will serve the turn of a really weak speller." The strict letters of the lore are more and more demanded—and in the right order.

BANISH HATE AND FEAR

It seems that we are measuring our reactions by emotions, not by reason. Emotions are not necessarily a bad approach. No trial lawyer neglects them. But fear and hate are the emotions which are apparent here, and fear and hate which are fanned to a white heat. Anyone who is fanning those emotions to a white heat is doing this country a disservice.

I saw the Washington scene, and what I saw did not frighten me. But is it necessary that we hate as much as we do? I am convinced that hatred is a bad diet, and that a long diet of hate and fear might destroy us.

Immigration Branch Rapped by Lawyers

'Shocking' Practices Reported at Winnipeg Meeting of Canadian Bar Association

WINNIPEG (CP)—Canada's citizenship and immigration department was accused Wednesday of "shocking" procedural practices at its offices all over the world.

The charges came at the convention of the Canadian Bar Association when the results of a 2½-year investigation of the department were disclosed following a committee meeting.

At the meeting, a three-man sub-committee, which had been investigating abuses in immigration procedure, sought permission from the parent committee to continue the investigation for another year.

J. H. McDonald of Ottawa, sub-committee chairman, said the investigation was disclosing "conditions more shocking than we first suspected."

Mr. McDonald, a Liberal organizer in Ontario, said that two years ago three lawyers, including himself, were named to the investigating sub-committee on immigration.

The others were John Dickey, Halifax member of Parliament and parliamentary assistant to Trade Minister Howe, and John Taylor, Vancouver attorney, who has handled thousands of immigration cases.

The sub-committee, Mr. McDonald said, had studied more than 200 cases and "this is the sort of thing we're finding out."

1. That in countless incidents Canadians trying to return from abroad were delayed by the immigration department anywhere up to five years. "They appear at an overseas immigration office with their birth certificates. An inspector simply tells them, he doesn't believe they are the person named on the certificate. Then he tells them goodbye. They have no recourse to the courts."

2. That there is little uniformity in the department's rules and regulations. A man may be refused entry by one inspector and permitted entry by another.

3. That the inspectors themselves aren't clear on what authority they have for their actions. The West Coast inspectors are determining some cases on the basis of a

FAVOR OCT. 25 AS DATE FOR BY-ELECTIONS

OTTAWA (BUP)—It looks like Oct. 25 or Nov. 1 for by-elections to fill six vacancies in the Commons.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, following a regular meeting of the cabinet attended by eight of the 20 ministers, indicated Wednesday that Oct. 25 was the earliest date on which the contests could be held in view of the electoral law set-up.

Setting the elections for Nov. 1 would give returning officers and other workers more time for enumeration and the multitude of other tasks to be done. However, it was learned from the chief electoral officer's headquarters here that if Oct. 25 were picked there would be ample time to prepare all the machinery.

An authoritative source on election matters was told by a reporter he had a nickel bet on Nov. 1. "If I were you," he advised the newsman, "I'd cover that with a dime bet on Oct. 25."

2 Juveniles Fined $352

CHEMAMUS—Juveniles who stole a car Aug. 15 and then had an accident near Duncan after a wild joy-ride, had the "book thrown at them" by Magistrate W. H. Bryant in court here.

The two youths stole a late model car owned by Charlie Say, and began a wild ride to Duncan. They failed to negotiate a curve on the Trans-Canada Highway and the car rolled over, suffering about $300 damage. One youth faced three charges while the other faced one.

The driver was fined on three counts: taking the car without the owner's consent; driving without due care and attention, and operating a car without a driver's license. He was fined a total of $196.50. The other youth was fined $155.50.

Magistrate Bryant has ordered the juveniles to earn the money to pay the fines. In addition, both were placed on probation for a period of two years.

RCMP served notice that they plan to take stern measures against juvenile delinquents.

Money, Not Suits, Interested Thieves

LONDON (Reuters)—An enterprising tailor stuck 11 notes conspicuously in the breast pockets of 10 suits displayed in his store window here and put up a sign saying he would give the money to the purchaser of each suit.

But thieves who smashed the window showed no interest in the garments. They just made off with the cash.

HE GAVE BOBO $5,500,000 BUT NEGLECTED GOVERNMENT

RENO, Nev. (UP)—District Judge John S. Belford, who recently awarded Bobo Rockefeller a divorce and a $5,500,000 settlement, has submitted his resignation five days after he was fined $5,000 for failure to file income tax returns.

Belford said he had not filed income tax returns in 1951 and 1952 because he could not afford to pay income taxes. Internal revenue bureau officials reported he also failed to file tax returns for 1953 and 1954.

Belford is one of Reno's three famed "marrying" judges who annually perform approximately 5,000 wedding each at an average fee of $7.50 each.

Sao Paulo Strike

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Sao Paulo, South America's greatest industrial centre, was crippled today by a 24-hour general wage strike that threatened to engulf some 700,000 workers.

Two policemen already have been wounded in the walkout, which the government branded illegal and threatened to suppress.

War veterans who have taken advantage of Veterans' Land Act offerings in this region are described as "Grade A risks" by George Chatterton, regional supervisor for Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands.

VLA Rates Islanders As 'Grade A' Risks

1,600 Take Advantage of Veterans' Act; Only One Fails to 'Pay Up'

He classed the veterans' record of dealings with the VLA as "amazing."

"We've never lost a penny through them. There has only been a lone failure in the 1,600 cases under our jurisdiction since 1944," said Mr. Chatterton. "In that case the fellow just packed up and disappeared. We've found no trace of him," said the supervisor.

So far veterans have built 500 new homes on the island and adjacent islands under the VLA scheme. He said many veterans who have the know-how about construction have built and are presently building their own homes.

He figured the average cost of these homes was about $8,000—or a total $4,000,000. VLA contracts with veterans in his region represented $9,000,000 in real estate security, Mr. Chatterton said.

"It is surprising but figures show that only six per cent of veterans eligible to qualify under VLA legislation have applied," he said.

The supervisor points out that the belief there was a time limit of 10 years to qualify to come under the act was false. "There is no time limit mentioned in the act," he declared. While previous legislation required veterans to have 1.6 acres of land to build on under the act, newer legislation now enables veterans to build on ordinary-size lots. Under this set-up lower-income veterans can qualify and get lessons on how to build their own home.

Billy Graham Revival In Sin City Ruled Out

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (UP)—Evangelist Billy Graham's planned one-night revival in this one-time city of sin was called off today after the town's tough military boss said he would "not allow" it. Maj. Gen. Walter J. (Crack) Hanna, commander of national guardsmen patrolling the city under martial rule, ruled against the revival. He said his forces were not large enough to "cope with the size of crowd" that would flood into the town to see Graham.

Valor of Airmen Perpetuated In Penhold Townsite, School

PENHOLD, Alta. (CP)—The names of four air heroes of the Second World War, one from Winnipeg and three brothers from Craigmyle, Alta., were etched into history Wednesday in moving ceremonies at the RCAF training station here.

Mrs. A. Mynarski of Winnipeg opened the gates of Mynarski Park housing development, named after her son Andrew Charles who was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross for gallantry over France in 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd Anderson of Craigmyle opened the Andersons of Craigmyle School which will serve Mynarski Park's 230 children. Their sons, Flt. Sgt. James Sangster Anderson, Flt. Sgt. Lloyd Anderson and Flt. Sgt. George Anderson, were killed on active service in 1942, 1943 and 1944, respectively.

Many of the watching 200 RCAF personnel, their wives and children were near tears. As Mrs. Mynarski, weeping quietly throughout the preliminary ceremonies, took the arm of Mynarski Park's mayor, Flt. Lt. A. Booth, opened the green steel gates and inspected the 32-man guard-of-honor.

PLANES FLY OVERHEAD She returned to her seat too overcome to declare officially the town open. Mayor Booth said it for her. Seconds later, 12 Harvard trainers flew overhead in salute.

Mrs. Mynarski, a small, grey-haired widow, made her first flight to attend the ceremonies.

Air Commodore J. C. Bryans, commander of 14 training group, Winnipeg, and W. J. C. Kirby, Progressive Conservative member of the Alberta legislature for nearby Red Deer, spoke at the ceremony.

Mr. Kirby said the children of Mynarski Park can live and play "in freedom and security because of the courage and sacrifice of men like PO. Mynarski who valued that freedom and security more than life itself."

PO. Mynarski was awarded the VC for his efforts to release a trapped rear gunner in a shot-up Lancaster bomber over Cambrai, France, June 12, 1944. His efforts failed and he bailed out, his parachute and clothing aflame. He died from injuries but the rear gunner survived the plane's crash.

One each side of the gate leading to 180-home Mynarski Park are concrete pillars bearing plaques to the memory of PO Mynarski and the Anderson brothers. William and James Anderson were twins. The three were the only children.

In a second emotional ceremony a few minutes after the first, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson opened the shiny new Andersons of Craigmyle School.

Mrs. Anderson slowly undraped the Union Jack shrouding a large plaque bearing her sons' names by the main entrance. In a brief speech, Mr. Anderson said they were "highly honored" to attend the opening of the "elegant" school. The Penhold station, a training base during the last war, was reopened in 1951 for RCAF and NATO trainees. Mynarski Park, quarters of married personnel, has a population of about 750, its own mayor, four-man council, school board, community life, sports and shopping facilities. It is about 100 miles south of Edmonton.

Lopat Stops Tribe; Giants, Brooks Lose

By UNITED PRESS

The National League turtle derby was rolling along in low gear today with both the Giants and Dodgers playing as if they didn't even care about playing the American League in the World Series.

Which might provide renewed hope to the third place Milwaukee Braves if they could sustain something better than a snail's pace for the next few days.

The Braves gained on both teams Wednesday night when they topped the Pirates, 3-1, on Warren Spahn's slick six-hitter for his 17th victory and now are 6½ games back. The Giants dropped a horrendous 9-7 marathon to Cincinnati in three hours and 13 minutes and Brooklyn lost a 9-5 decision to the Cubs in a collapse that saw Carl Furillo, Pee-wee Reese, and Jack Robinson make errors in a four-run winning inning for Chicago. It was Chicago's seventh straight victory and Brooklyn's third straight defeat.

Seixas May By-Pass Aussie Trip

By ED CORREGAN

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Vic Seixas, runner-up to Tony Trabert for the United States national tennis championship last year, half the 1953 U.S. Davis Cup team, and current forgotten man of the tennis circuit, may never see Australia again.

"Nope," he said today, "I may not go to Australia if they want me to play doubles only. If he refuses to take the long jaunt, the Americans will lose a virtual certain point in the challenge round. Seixas and Trabert have beaten every Australian combination coach Harry Hopman has named.

Actually, the only other player in the running for the second singles spot behind Trabert is Hamilton Richardson, national intercollegiate champion. And, frowned Seixas, if Ham gets the post it will mean only that the selectors want a younger player, not that they have any hopes of winning.

"Those Australians hit their peak at 17 or 18," observed the 31-year-old Seixas. "They don't improve much after that. It's too bad the Davis Cup isn't 10 matches. We have more depth and I think we'd beat them."

Aussies Well Supervised, Or Has 'Arry Gone Too Far?

By OSCAR FRALEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UP)—This is probably the last year in which Harry Hopman, the Casey Stengel of Australian tennis, will manage the Aussie net forces and exhaustive investigation has failed to disclose a damp eye in the house.

"Opolung 'Arry is a wiry little man with the perpetual expression of a gourmet who specializes in persimmons. It is a facade which reflects directly on the inner man.

For Hopman, treating all comers in the manner of a moonshiner entertaining federal agents, has brilliantly estranged himself from his own players, U.S. and British tennis officials and the newspapermen of three continents. Possibly you have noticed that, despite their vaunted reputations, the Australian whiz kids have absolutely no international singles trophies on their mantelpiece. The gen-

Jackson Really 'On' Despite 'Night Off'

TRAILERMEN, ST. KITS IN EAST BOXLA FINAL

TORONTO (CP)—The Ontario Lacrosse Association announced Wednesday night that the best-of-seven senior league finals between St. Catharines Trailermen and Peterborough Trilliums will open in St. Catharines Friday night.

The two clubs reached the finals Wednesday night by finishing in a first-place tie in the round-robin semifinals.

The winner of the series enters the Mann Cup finals for the Canadian title.

Lions to Trim Roster; Four Imports Must Go

VANCOUVER (CP)—Coach Annis Stukus said Wednesday he will probably announce some time Thursday the names of the 10 American imports to be retained by his British Columbia Lions for the remainder of the Western Interprovincial Football Union season.

BRONCS REGAIN WIL LEAD

Lewiston moved back into first place in the Western International League Wednesday night, ending its 1954 home season with a 1-0 triumph over Edmonton.

The win, coupled with Yakima's 6-2 setback by Vancouver, put the Broncos one game ahead of the Bears who only the day before had taken over the top spot.

A crowd of 2,165, one of the largest of the season, was on hand for the Lewiston-Edmonton fracas.

Salem, with seven games left on its schedule, lost to Wenatchee, 6-5, Thursday night to drop three games out of first place.

Archers Outshoot Gunmen

The arrow was more deadly than the bullet recently in the third of a series of competitions between members of the Victoria Bowman's Club and the Capital City Revolver Club.

After dropping the first two shoots to the pistol-wielders, the archers won the third meeting by amassing 1,687 points from the 50-yard range while the gunmen accounted for 1,526 points from the same distance.

Team members follow: Bowman's—Bob Copeman (captain), Ben Copeman, Frank Jones, Bill Kramer, Revolver club—Harry McAllister (captain), Eric Smith, Bill McCoubrey, Fred Blumson.

Duncan 5, Fletchers 3

Barry Jackson, a workhorse if ever there was one, paid long-shot odds for a thoroughbred job Wednesday night.

Jackson, the big arm of the Duncan Mayo Lumber Senior A softball team, had started the three previous games of the best-of-five series between Duncan and Cec Fletchers for the Vancouver Island championship. Having worked in three straight games, Jackson was given the night off last night.

His holiday lasted exactly two-thirds of an inning and then he came on to pitch a masterpiece as Duncan won, 5-3, to even the series at two wins each.

Al Smith started for Duncan but was greeted like a rich uncle as Vern Evans, Bernie Clarkson and Les Wilson clouted singles and an error and walk helped Fletchers to three runs.

Jackson was hailed in off the bench with two out, ended the inning and proceeded to pitch 2½ innings of no-hit, no-run ball, gave up no walks and allowed only one runner to get to first base, that on an infield error in the seventh.

Rubber game of the triad series goes tonight at Central Park at 7:15. Big Ed Foychuk is a probable starter for Fletchers and Duncan may be forced to come right back with Jackson again.

Kramer Drops Tour; Instructs Youngsters

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UP)—Promoter Jack Kramer, 1 to lose interest in a professional barnstorming tour this winter, hopes to raise his future pro stars right from the "cradle."

"I found out last year you have to have a big name amateur star to make the tour a real success," said Jack. "It looks as if there'll be no superstar this year, so I'm not planning a tour."

"But right now I have a squad of 12 kids I'm real proud of. They're all 17 years old or younger, but 10 out of 12 won impressive matches in their first tests at Forest Hills. Maybe there's one or more who'll be a pro prospect some day."

The group of youngsters under Kramer's wing has the official blessing of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association as the Junior Davis Cup team and special training squad.

"We give them training and competition on grass courts when they need it the most—in their early development period," said Kramer.

Jack hoped to make a major pro tour with Tony Trabert as his star in 1955, but the husky Cincinnati star wound up with a handful of blisters at Wimbledon and bowed out. The title went to the veteran displaced Czech, Jaroslav Drobny.

Indians Put Crimp In Farewell Plans

Rocks Home Again Monday As Tribe in Sound Win

Indians 12, Shamrocks 9

By DENNY BOYD

Five thousand three hundred and ninety-nine people streamed into Memorial Arena Wednesday night to see what they presumed would be the last home game of the 1954 lacrosse season. Instead, they saw what might be the start of a wind-ding series for the western championship.

PNE Indians, who were two games down before Wednesday's game and hadn't shown signs of opposition to Shamrocks' victory plans, were not supposed to win on Victoria's floor. The odds-makers planned for them to lose, giving Shamrocks a three-game lead—the Rocks were then supposed to wrap the series up on the mainland Friday night.

But the Indians of Jake Proctor, to whom orthodoxy means nothing, scribbled all over the script with a black pencil, confusing the issue by coping a well-merited 12-9 victory from a bewitched and bemused Shamrock team that waited until the fourth quarter to play lacrosse.

Now the series shifts to Kersdale Arena Friday night and the Indians could provide a peek of trouble as they apparently have shaken off the effects of a bruising semifinal series with Nanaimo Native Sons. Fifth game of the series comes back to Memorial Arena Monday night.

Joseph Was the Big Stopper

Indians, favoring their usual slow-as-a-waltz attack with a couple of dazzling outbursts of the fast break, held the game in the palms of their hands for the first three-quarters of the game and then just held on during the fourth-quarter when the Rocks came snarling back with a six-goal cluster that had the fans screaming in anxiety.

But a great big guy who moves as fast as a striking cobra, Stan Joseph by name, put a king-size crimp in the Shamrock plans when the excitement hit its peak. Joseph, felled in the fourth quarter when a blazing shot by Jack Northup hit him in the neck, gruggly held the fort for the tribe.

Strictly from a lacrosse viewpoint, it was a great game—fast, hard-hitting and exciting even when the Irish were five goals behind. And The O' Demon, Jake Proctor, kept the fans in a fit by accusing the referees of myopia and the time-keepers of dishonesty in handling the clock.

Indians were off and running like a pack of thoroughbred slasher through a disorganized Shamrock defense for four goals in the first quarter and two in the second. The only Shamrock goal of the first half came with the second hand, bisecting the 59 and 60-second notches on the clock in the first quarter, Norm Baker scoring. Proctor hollered mightily that the period was over when Baker scored but the goal was allowed.

There Was Hope for a Time

Shamrocks could do no better than get half of the four goals scored in the third quarter and were behind, 8-3, going into the fourth heat.

Alfie Wood tipped it to 9-3 after 20 seconds, and Proctor, showing an amazing burst of speed, made it 10-3, 25 seconds later. Proctor broke in on goal so fast he careened into the end boards and knocked himself cold for two minutes.

But then the Rocks came storming back with Arnie Ferguson, Archie Browning, Jackie Northup and Al Gill pulling the trigger on four straight goals.

Then it was Ken Jones, who played a tremendous game,

Dobbs Embittered; 'Never Got a Chance'

HAMILTON, Ont. (BUP)—Quarterback Glenn Dobbs, former United States football great, has charged that Hamilton coach Carl Voyles fired him without ever "giving me my chance in a game."

Dobbs left for his stock farm near Mounds, Okla., saying that he still didn't understand "why Voyles wanted me in the first place."

Voyles cut Dobbs from the defending champion Tigercats on Monday, declaring "he just doesn't seem to have it any more."

Dobbs said: "On the western tour, I played offense for more than 10 plays at Regina, never got in the Calgary game and played mostly defense in Vancouver. On the whole trip, I didn't have more than six or eight plays with the club regulars."

Dobbs outkicked Montreal's Tex Coulter in Saturday's opening Big Four game, but was used at quarterback in only three plays.

"Voyles told me I couldn't throw, but I never got a chance of a chance to throw," he added. "I gave up a coaching job to come here on the promise that he was going to keep two quarterbacks. When he cut me he said he was only going to keep one," Dobbs said.

LETHBRIDGE (CP)—Butch McDonald signed Monday to coach Lethbridge Native Sons through the Western Junior Hockey League 1954-55 season.

Boxla Banter

It was a great night for the Seversons Wednesday at Memorial Arena, spoiled only by the fact that Victoria Shamrocks had their clocks cleaned.

Whitely Severson was presented with the beautiful new Times Trophy at half-time of the playoff game with PNE Indians. Presented by Times managing editor Les Fox, the trophy was the big prize in the Times Amateur Athlete of the Year contest.

Whitely's wife, Betty-May, was presented with a corsage by tiny Janice Hall.

Vociferous Jake Proctor was greatly disturbed over the arena's clock. He claimed that Norm Baker's first goal was scored after the period had ended and then halted the game in the fourth quarter for another session. This time he claimed the clock was running five minutes late but he apparently forgot that injuries to himself and Stan Joseph had consumed a good five minutes of time-outs.

*****

Indians were not at all happy with the refereeing of Eric Dickinson and informed members of the league commission of their dissatisfaction.

*****

Red McMillan's post-game summation: "You can't beat those guys (Indians) playing just one quarter of lacrosse."

Whoever broke Harold Fox's nose last night did a thorough job. The Indian rookie's beak looked like a bent banana after the game.

TED ATKINSON RIDES 3,000TH RACE WINNER

NEW YORK (AP)—Toronto-born Ted Atkinson Wednesday achieved a goal reached by only three other jockeys in racing history when he rode his 3,000th winner.

He scored with Devastation, a two-year-old filly owned by Greentree Stable, his contract employer, in a six-furlong claiming race. It was his first mount of the day at Aqueduct race track, and came in the third race.

The only other jockeys to ride 3,000 or more winners are Sir Gordon Richards, Johnny Longden and Eddie Arcaro.

Sir Gordon holds the record with 4,870, but he retired recently after an injury. Longden has more than 4,000, and Arcaro went over the 3,000-mark in 1952.

TAC Takes Fine Mark Into B.C. Softball Series

Tillamook, Vancouver Island senior B men's softball champions, will bid this week-end for the provincial crown.

The locals are scheduled to view for the B.C. title in a six-team, double-elimination championship series at Aldergrove, starting Friday night and concluding Monday.

Tillamook last week-end won their second straight Island title and the right to compete in the finals by defeating Lady Smith, 14-6 and 9-2, to sweep a best-of-three series in two straight games.

At the provincial championship tourney last season, Tillamook dropped their first game to Vernon, which eventually won the title, 4-1. They won their second contest against favored White Rock, 6-5, before being eliminated, 6-5, by a Vancouver club.

Coach Lou McCorkill expects his charges to show better this season and present a strong challenge for the haul.

STRONGER UNIT

The club is considerably stronger in pitching with the addition of Marc Cunningham and Denny Beguac. The former mound corps of Bill Konkin and Alf Aspinall, Konkin was unable to go with the team last year to the provincial tourney. All, with the exception of Konkin, use the buzz-ball delivery.

McCorkill expects Bill Merluk and cleanup hitter Jack Elliott to show well at the plate. Both have been hitting consistently and for distance in recent games.

Tillamook have captured the city championship three consecutive years, losing the Island final three years ago to Lady Smith, a former senior A team.

Edmonton's Race Plant Described as Obsolete

CALGARY (CP)—Members of the Prairie Horsemen's Benevolent Protective Association think that Edmonton's setup for horse racing is the most obsolete on the continent for horses, horsemen and jockeys. They made these remarks here at the association's annual meeting. Members said that facilities at Edmonton for the public are the best.

Stewart Bison Coach

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Gay Stewart Wednesday night was named playing coach of Buffalo Bisons in the American Hockey League. Stewart, who joined the Bisons last season, succeeds Frankie Edolls. Edolls resigned two weeks ago to accept a similar job with Chicago Black Hawks.

Tigers Prolong City Bantam Boxla Final

Saanich Tigers held off a furious Fernwood rally Wednesday night at Memorial Arena to win their bantam playoff game, 11-10, and remain in contention for the city bantam championship.

Fernwood still holds a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven series and came close to ending it all Wednesday night.

Four goals down at one time, Fernwood scored three times in the last quarter to pull within one goal of the winners but stalled at that point. Tom Collett of Saanich was the top scorer with five goals.

Blue Bombers evened the best-of-three city Diaper League championship at Stevenson Park, scoring four times in the last two minutes to pull out a

Two Games Billed at Week-End

Victoria's Canadian football, having picked itself up with astonishing speed from the sandlot to a big-business scale, heads into its biggest year this week-end.

Gone are the days when ragamuffin teams held their pants up with adhesive tape and wore pulp magazines for thigh guards. No longer will there be so many different sweaters on the field that it would seem as if half a dozen teams were playing at one time.

Three well-equipped, well-drilled intermediate clubs get things rolling this week-end with games on Saturday and Monday at Macdonald Park and a four-team junior league will start operations within a month.

Drill teams, cheer leaders, marching bands and naval gold braid will add to the color of the team uniforms Saturday at Macdonald Park when Mayo Vampires tangle with Navy in the 1954 opener. The Navy players will just have time to salve their Saturday bruises when they will meet the third team in the circuit, Oak Bay, in a Labor Day game at the same park. Games start at 2:00.

NEW PARK

One of the biggest experiments this year will be the actual site of the games. Last year, the games were held at the unenclosed Heywood Avenue, which was shorter than regulation and had a tree growing in one end zone. Revenue was by silver collection. However, Macdonald Park, although not centrally located as Heywood, has ample covered seating, superior dressing room facilities and concession booths. Fixed admission will be charged for all games.

On Saturday, extra entertainment will be supplied by the Victoria Girls' Drill Team and the Eagles' Band and Drill Team. Rear Admiral J. C. Hibbard, DSC and bar, CD, RCN, will make the opening kick-off.

Peirson Quits Bruins

BOSTON (BUP)—Johnny Peirson resigned last night from the Boston Bruins for whom he played right wing seven seasons. Peirson, 29, who is a native of Winnipeg, Man., said he was leaving professional hockey to join his father's furniture business in Cambridge.

Main Proves Tough In Loss to Trabert

By WILL GRIMSLEY

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—Defending titleholder Tony Trabert moved up to the fourth round of the United States tennis championships Wednesday but not before he was run ragged by a pint-sized Canadian who swines a racquet with a two-fisted baseball grip.

Finally, after nearly two hours on the centre-court, the champion lived up to his No. 1 seeding by quelling Lorne Main of Toronto and Vancouver 11-9, 8-6, 6-2.

For a while, however, it appeared it might be a tight squeeze. Main, who uses both hands to stroke from either side, carried Trabert to the 20th game before he finally lost his service. He cracked Tony's powerful delivery twice in the second set and made a bitter fight of it in the third, before succumbing.

Swift of foot and with quick racquet action, the Canadian Davis Cup star, seeded ninth among foreign entries, seemed to confuse Trabert with a looping drive that fell at the champion's feet as he stormed the net.

MAJOR UPSET

While Tony was having his troubles, Jack Frost, 20-year-old giant killer from Monterey, Calif., was producing the first major upset in a marathon, four-hour battle on one of the obscure field courts.

Frost, who upset Vic Seixas at a Newport, B.I. tournament, ousted the sixth-seeded Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., 9-7, 10-12, 5-7, 6-4, 10-8. The match lasted four hours.

Australia's Davis Cup ace, Lew Hoad, crushed Andres Hammarley of Chile 6-0, 6-1, 9-6. Also advancing into the fourth round were Vic Seixas and Ham Richardson.

FIGHT FANS GET IN FOR FREE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—

The case of mumps helped make boxing history here Wednesday night as George Justine, Philadelphia welterweight, defeated fellow townsman Ellwood Davis and Bobby Bell, Youngstown, Ohio, and Ike Chestnut of New York fought to a draw in the first "studio-home audience" nationally televised fight show ever presented.

Some 2,000 boxing fans—about the size of a large studio audience—were admitted free to the double window program of six-rounders, a substitute for the welterweight title fight between Kid Gavilan and challenger Johnny Saxton. Gavilan came down with a case of the mumps Tuesday 24 hours before he was scheduled to make his eighth title defense.

Greenkeepers' Tee Tourney

The 20th annual greenkeepers' golf tournament is scheduled to be contested at Victoria Golf Club on Sept. 30.

Two main trophies will be up for grabs, the greenkeepers' championship Harry Young Trophy won last year by Lyle Barnes of the Cedar Hill club and the handicap championship J. A. Sayward Cup, taken at the last tourney by J. McDonald of Uplands.

McDonald will not be on hand to defend his honors won last year.

The inter-club shield captured last year by Oak Bay will also be at stake and a putting competition will be held.

Following the matches, a banquet will be held at Loughheed's Banquet Hall and prizes will be presented. Draw and starting times for the matches will be announced later.

JUVENILE LACROSSE

The juvenile B lacrosse game, canceled Monday night because of rain, will be played tonight at Stevenson Park at 6 between City Big Horns and Strathcona Hotel.

Farmers Bid for Tourney Victory

Farmer. Construction will be shooting for the stars and their first baseball tourney victory in seven tries this week-end when they compete in the eight-team $1,000 Courtenay Labor Day week-end tournament.

Unsuccessful in six previous attempts to capture laurels and cash in Island tournament action, Farmers' manager Ed Ash has strengthened his pitching corps for this one by picking up pitcher, Bill Prior, former Victoria Tyee.

Although the club has proven itself the class of the Island in league and exhibition games the past two seasons, Farmers have advanced to a tournament final only once in six tries.

They met Courtenay Legion for the July 1 tourney title this season, only to lose out as the old error jinx cropped up to give Legion three unearned runs and a 4-2 win.

In addition to Prior, manager Ash can choose from five other pitchers. They are: righthanders Norm Forbes and Paul Beck, and lefthanders Bill Garner, Don Donahue and Lowell

Hodges. Hodges has been playing first base, but could be called upon if the need arises.

Other teams in the tourney are Legion, Parksville Loggers, Comox Tigers, Chemainus Red Sox, Mallardville, Powell River Rodmays and Campbell River Cougars.

Farmers see their first action Sunday night at 5 when they tangle with Campbell River.

Semis are scheduled Monday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., with the final going Monday night at 5. Umpires for the tourney will be Len "Gummy" Leach of Vancouver, Tom Rooney of Port Alberni and Red Harvey of the Comox and District League.

Farmers' catcher Jim Harford will bear watching at the tourney. At the July 1 tourney Harford walked away with the hitting award after clubbing 11 hits in 15 official trips to the plate.

Other hitting prizes at the July 1 event also went to Victoria players. Big Charlie Boyd rapped out the most extra base hits—three triples, and Lyle Cornett drove in seven runs, high for the tourney.

Gwynneth Powell Total Points Winner in Annual Colwood Fair

By MRS. W. ALLEN
Times Colwood Correspondent
COLWOOD—Gwynneth Powell, 13, won the coveted Canadian Bank of Commerce tray Wednesday for amassing the high total of 22 points in the 12-16 age division at the ninth annual Colwood fair held at Colwood Hall.

Danny Adams won the 6-11 year section with 27 points after trying for years to lead his class and coming close to winning in two previous fairs. The fair, a joint effort of Colwood Women's Institute and Colwood Community Club, was opened by W. MacGillivray, deputy agriculture minister, who said the task was the first of that nature since his appointment to his present position.

HIGH STANDARD
"I have seen sufficient of the entries to indicate the high standard your exhibits have reached," he said.

Fair managers were Mrs. E. Mossop, institute president, and S. Gardner, president of the community club.

Men of the community club who had charge of concessions were S. Owen, E. Emery, J. Mossop, W. Allen and F. Searle. Flower arrangements were handled by Miss L. M. A. Savory, Mrs. E. Emery, Mrs. S. Lang and Mrs. W. Faulks. Mrs. R. B. Murray and Mrs. P. Georgeson had charge of fruit, and Mrs. T. Parson, Mrs. E. Milne and Mrs. J. Hopwood looked after vegetable displays.

In charge of home-cooking, canning and needlework were Mrs. F. Kenwood, Mrs. J. Austin, Mrs. E. Peatt, Mrs. C. Smith, Mrs. E. Dawson, Mrs. E. Shields, Mrs. F. Searle, and Mrs. G. Burkenholder. Mrs. G. Smith managed the auction and Mrs. A. Turner convoked afternoon tea.

Chrysanthemum Show Offers Cash Prizes

Early Flowering, Spray and Novice Classes Featured at Fall Event

Chrysanthemums will be featured in Victoria Horticultural Society fall showing to be held in Crystal Garden, Sept. 17 and 18, with cash prizes in early flowering, spray varieties and novice classes.

'AT $2,000? NO!'

Ratepayers Ban Feed For Mayors

DETROIT (CP) — More than 500 Canadian mayors and their wives nearly missed dinner Wednesday night.

A scheduled civic banquet for them came off only when a group of private residents, headed by Louis C. Miriani, president of the Detroit Common Council, dug into their pockets for $2,000 to finance the dinner.

This is what happened: Delegates to the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities, being held in adjacent Windsor, Ont., were invited on a tour of Detroit ending up with a civic banquet. The invitation was accepted.

A Detroit citizens' group, called the Home Owners Civic Association, protested the expenditure of $2,000 to feed "a bunch of Canadian mayors."

The group threatened to sue the city since, under Michigan law, citizens can recover from the individuals responsible illegal expenditures of municipal funds.

Trade exhibitions will be allowed for in the display room, and awards of merit for the best showings will be given. Commercial growers should submit applications for space to the secretary, P. D. Smithers, before September 15.

Show hours are from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, September 17, and from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday.

All classes of chrysanthemums must be named and shown in containers to be supplied by the society. This not only assists judges, but is necessary for the educational aspect of the show.

Only persons who have never won a first prize in any chrysanthemum class are eligible to enter the novice classes.

Value of the work done by members of the society is recognized by municipal authorities who make grants to permit its function. Donations are also made by local seed and supply firms.

Members of the society are sent monthly gardening notes, given lectures on gardening, or free advice from more experienced members, and get demonstrations on proper pruning methods.

Applications for membership, or for information regarding the coming show should be addressed to Mr. Smithers, 4159 Wilkinson Road, 9-2754.

IMPOUND CHILD FOR $40 BILL AT HOSPITAL

PAW PAW, Mich. (CP) — A 16-month-old boy, impounded by Van Buren county welfare department because his parents could not pay his $40 hospital bill, Wednesday was released by a circuit court judge.

Leroy Maddox was handed to his mother and father, migrant farm workers, during a court session.

W. H. Young, president of the commission, said there was never any real intention of holding the boy as a chattel.

The father went Monday to get the boy after the child recovered from pneumonia. The child was ordered held when the father could not pay the bill. The father offered to give blood to the value of the bill but could not give enough himself and his wife was not medically fit.

B.C. Gas Not Coveted, Says Manning

EDMONTON (CP) — Premier Manning Wednesday denied a statement by British Columbia Liberal leader Arthur Laing that Alberta is planning to make a grab of B.C.'s natural gas resources.

Mr. Laing said in a telegram Tuesday to Premier Bennett of British Columbia that Fish Engineering Corporation of Houston, Texas, and Alberta interests are scheming to pipe gas through a grid from the Peace River area to Washington, Oregon and the B.C. lower mainland.

Commenting on Mr. Laing's statement that Alberta is seeking construction of an all-Alberta gas line which would rob the B.C. interior of prospective developments, Mr. Manning said "there are no negotiations whatsoever under way."

ANCIENT ORDER

The order of Cistercian nuns was founded in 1125 near Dijon, France, for prayer and contemplation.

Marilyn Accused Of Reckless Driving

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Marilyn Monroe is accused of "reckless, careless and negligent" driving in a $3,000 damage suit. Bari P. Antinosa charges her car collided with his last May 21. No one was hurt. The actress' husband, Joe DiMaggio, was also named a defendant because he owned the car.

Escapes Drowning, Loses $4,000 Boat

VANCOUVER (CP) — John Henry Andrews, 23-year-old construction worker, escaped a watery grave but lost a $4,000 speedboat Wednesday as the craft sank beneath him in the First Narrows here.

Andrews was rescued by a friend who noticed he was in difficulty and threw him a line. The boat had been giving Andrews trouble for about an hour previously and was in tow when it went under.

OAK BAY COUNCILLORS FIREMEN FOR A NIGHT

Oak Bay council members had some of their boyhood dreams come true Wednesday night when Fire Chief Ed Clayards and the newly repaired No. 1 triple-combination pumper of the Oak Bay Fire Department paid a visit to the municipal hall.

The pumper, looking like a brand new truck following repairs by Norton Engineering Works, had turned over at the corner of Bowker Avenue and St. Ann Street earlier this year.

Complete repairs have been made and several improvements undertaken. The suspension system has been revamped and new ladders and equipment installed.

Councillors George Gregory and Pat Birley immediately clambered aboard the vehicle to get a close look at the equipment, and the fire chief unlimbered a fog-nozzle hose for councillors to play with.

Only disappointed member of the council after the demonstration was Mr. Birley.

"I wanted a ride," he said.

Soldiers Accused of Creating Unemployment for Civilians

A claim that members of the local armed forces are doing "after job work" and creating unemployment for civilians was made Wednesday night at a meeting of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council (AFL-TLC).

John Aubrey, retail clerk's business agent, said he had heard of a lot of cases where army and navy personnel here were using their "off hours" to do jobs that non-service people rely on "to get their bread and butter."

The retail clerk's chief said he knew that this was against rules of the armed forces.

Other members of the council claimed that other people employed by the federal government were also doing off-hour work "because they claim they are being under-paid in their regular jobs."

Mr. Aubrey said he had heard about one EMC Dockyard fireman who worked a full shift in a store in his off-time. He also noted other cases "in which people gainfully employed are taking away work from people who really need it."

The meeting decided to write to the federal ministers and labor and defense departments asking that steps be taken to discourage the practise of government-employed personnel taking work that will result in a hardship on other persons.

Army, TCA Deny Any Knowledge Of Plane Fight

OTTAWA (CP)—Army headquarters said Wednesday it can find no evidence to confirm a published Toronto newspaper report that a fight by six soldiers in a Trans-Canada Air Lines plane forced the aircraft to make an unscheduled landing.

"We have made an exhaustive search but have been unable to turn up any evidence whatsoever that any such incident ever took place," an army spokesman said.

The army added it has been told by TCA the line has no record of such an incident.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

I am always intrigued by the official mind at work, and hope you'll share my joy at the latest evidence of its devious ways.

As you may have noticed, there has been some talk about a visit here by the RCN aircraft carrier HMCS Magnificent.

Naturally, this is a matter of major interest in this navy-minded town.

Rumors about the voyage started to circulate early in July. By July 21, the Times had firmed up these rumors to the extent that it was possible to publish a factual story, stating that Magnificent was, indeed, to visit this coast in the fall.

But the navy itself could neither confirm nor deny the reports. Officially, it was silent. Unofficially, the Times was told Magnificent's movements were "classified" (i.e., secret) information.

As recently as Wednesday of this week, a Times reporter was again informed the subject of Magnificent was "classified."

Thus it was with a great chuckle that our deskmen read a certain letter this morning.

It was dated Victoria, B.C., Sept. 1, and was written on Post Office letterhead.

The letter began: "Re mail addressed to personnel of HMCS Magnificent while on cruise from Halifax to Vancouver and return."

The letter then proceeded to list closing dates for the ports of Balboa, San Diego, San Francisco, Long Beach, Colon, Montreal and Victoria.

The navy? As far as the navy is concerned, Maggie's movements are top secret.

Post office department, I'd like you to meet Department of National Defense.

It's only fair to mention the Pacific Command isn't responsible for clamping down on peacetime ship movements.

Ottawa gets full credit for this example of official "thinking."

File for future reference department: A thoughtful father who took his youngsters to the air show yesterday has taken a long look into the future.

"Some day," he said, "my son will say to his children, 'Can you imagine, I can remember when we drove all the way to the airport just to see a plane fly 720 miles per hour.'"

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

All provincial government offices will close Monday, Sept. 6, in observance of the Labor Day holiday.

The provincial museum will remain open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for the benefit of tourists and visitors.

The eyes of at least a few residents of Africa are turning towards Vancouver Island.

Publicity commissioner George Warren says "at least one letter" a week is received inquiring about business and farming possibilities. Dissatisfaction seems to arise from the troubled political situation in South Africa and Kenya.

Mr. Warren sends information on business, living costs, agriculture, education and other material requested.

All of Victoria's one-way streets did not become two-way when city council repealed recent legislation freeing downtown traffic. D. H. Green, 2860 Currie, was fined $5 today in city police court for driving the wrong way on Bastion, between Government and Langley.

Frank Parham, Victoria, pleaded not guilty to a public mischief charge in city police court today and was remanded to September 13. The charge said he had allegedly made false statements and representations to police but details were not divulged.

Victoria's 2,500 junior high school students should report to classrooms when school opens September 7 at the following times: Grades seven at 9 a.m.; grades eight at 10 a.m. and grades nine at 11 a.m.

A fall down basement stairs seriously injured 54-year-old Mrs. Elsie Schofield of 850 Shamrock just before midnight Wednesday. Saanich police ambulance took her to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she was treated for a fractured shoulder and wrist, head injuries and shock. She is in "fairly good condition" today, according to hospital authorities.

A second charge of careless driving in one month resulted in a fine of $75 or ten days to day for Edward Rainaldi, 879 Tillicum. The court was told that since 1950 he has also been convicted of dangerous driving and with failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Magistrate H. C. Hall said he would ask for a license suspension in spite of the fact that Rainaldi is a contractor and requires to drive for business purposes.

"Twice in one month is too much," said the magistrate.

There's a Princess Street watch dog who is carrying his obligations a mile too far. Constable Bill Mayzes was placing a ticket on a car on Princess Street Wednesday night for blocking the driveway. His report says: "While attending, a dog came up and bit me on the leg."

It was later learned the dog did not belong to the man who owned the car. Its owner was told to keep it locked up or ship it far, far away.

A 70-year-old woman was rushed to Jubilee Hospital shortly after noon today after she was struck by a bus while crossing Fort Street.

Mrs. E. Minton, 710 Fort, was in a crosswalk in the 700-block when the collision occurred. Police said cars were parked right up to the crosswalk line and the bus driver did not see the woman until she was directly in front of him. He jammed his brakes but was unable to stop in time.

Jaycees Expand Spring Fair, Leave Fall Show to Others

Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce will expand its agricultural sections of the B.C. Products Fair held in the spring, on the heels of increased interest in the area on establishing a race track and exhibition grounds.

Jaycee president Alf Heaslip said today that suggestions the junior chamber should hold a fall exhibition were not being considered; instead agriculture exhibits of the spring fair would be stepped up.

He said: "We feel that a full scale fall exhibition is also most desirable for Victoria, and we wish the B.C. Agricultural Association every success in promoting and re-establishing a class 'A' exhibition."

HERE THEY COME... DIDN'T THEY—Three Sabres zoom over the crowds at Pat Bay Wednesday in first show of jet aerobatics on Vancouver Island. Part of crowd of 10,000 is seen grouped by C-119 "Flying Boxcar," which was opened to view. (Times photo by Bill Halkett.)

WEATHER PERFECT FOR AIR SHOW

10,000 See, Hear Jet Smash Sonic Barrier Over Pat Bay

By PETE LOUDON

About 10,000 people went home with stiff necks, sun-dazzled eyes and overworked eardrums Wednesday following an RCAF jet fighter display over Pat Bay airport.

They saw and heard one of the finest possible examples of breaking the sound barrier, according to Display Co-ordinator, Wing Commander C. C. Lee, CD.

Weather conditions were perfect, he said, to make the power drive of F.O. A. L. McIlreath more than just a heavy concussion. Vapor following the plane could be seen, visibly affected at the time the impact hit the watchers.

Behind the aircraft a cloud formed, a phenomenon rarely seen, according to the co-ordinator.

A single Sabre Jet which appeared after McIlreath, showed the power climb potential of these aircraft in a long straight-up climb, with corkscrew rolls.

A ground officer explained the results when a plane dives through air at 740 miles per hour.

"Any aircraft passing through the sky meets air resistance. The air gives way and flows above and below the wings and fuselage. But at a high enough speed, the air does not 'have time to take this avoiding action, piles up in a mass before the plane. The plane hits this mass with all the momentum of its eight ton gross weight and smashes its way through. Behind the plane is a vacuum. The concussion occurs as the compressed wall of air charges from all directions into this emptiness."

The crowds who lined all sides of the airport, thronged on the tarmac and sprinkled over hilly vantage points for miles around, saw aerobatics by Canucks and Silver Stars, as well as the Sabres.

The slope-winged Sabres, are known as F-86s in the service. It was a Sabre which broke the sound barrier and a team of three Sabres which whistled over the field in ever-changing formations, sometimes with wingtips almost touching.

Another team of jets, Canucks or CF-100s, with pointed noses, and a two-man crew, hurried their 17-ton weight and 52-foot wingspread through the Pat Bay skies like bullets.

Finally, four Silver Stars, the T-33 trainer jets showed the versatility expected of Canada's young jet-age skymen who are still within their first two years in the service. "Easily" handled, according to young pilots, the T-33 has a 38-foot wing span and weighs 1,000 pounds less than the Sabre.

Four T-33s threw themselves in a box formation toward the sun then each peeled off at a 90-degree angle to the other in a thrilling stunt called a bomb burst. Once the formation burst open, the planes looped and crossed the field from four directions at low level. Only perfect timing avoided a collision.

Another attraction at the show was the presence of a "Flying Boxcar" or C-119, which carried a load of Sea Island personnel to the field, then opened its stubby cargo space to let the inquisitive peer within.

NO LANDINGS
The C-119 was the only aircraft in the show to land here, the other planes returning to Sea Island after each display.

The group has been touring Canada from its base in St. Hubert, Quebec, and according to one source constitutes almost all of Canada's jet power on this continent. Other squadrons have been detached, mostly to Germany, as part of this country's NATO commitments.

The fact that the planes were unable to land here (special mobile starting engines are required once the engines stop and Pat Bay runways were considered a bit cramped for jet landings), robbed spectators of one of the most surprising sights of the show—the youthfulness of the men who fly them.

A classic story tells of the father of a jet pilot who wondered aloud, "Last year I was afraid to let him out alone in the family car—now they give him a million dollar airplane."

Thousands on Move Labor Day Week-End

EARLY START, SAFE FINISH

Traveling this week-end? If you are, then the B.C. Automobile Association has a word for you: "Make your trip a safe one and plan to leave in plenty of time so you won't have to hurry in Labor Day traffic. Fast driving increases the chances of having an accident."

2 Candidates Against Races In Saanich

Opposed By Grant, Haw

Two candidates running in the Sept. 18 Saanich by-election went on record today against the establishment of a race track anywhere in the municipality.

R. M. Grant, a naturopathic physician, and Edwin Haw, a labor official, also said they were against Saanich rezoning the district surrounding Beaver Lake which the city proposes to "sell or lease" for a race track and exhibition grounds. The property is owned by the city.

The race track issue was one of seven questions on which the Times asked the two candidates to express their views. The questions are all vital issues facing the municipality at the present time.

Mr. Grant said he felt that a race track in Saanich would result in devaluation of property and would also pose several problems to the municipality.

Mr. Haw said he was against the establishment of race tracks anywhere on Vancouver Island. He felt a more "positive" form of entertainment could be found for the people of Greater Victoria.

On other issues the candidates differed little. They were asked if they were in favor of building a new $250,000 municipal hall.

Mr. Grant said he was "undecided" and would have to look into the matter.

TOO COSTLY

Mr. Haw came out with a positive "no." He felt that such a project at the present time would prove too costly for the ratepayers. An annex to the present building would be sufficient to take care of overcrowding, he said.

The two candidates replied "yes" to the following remaining questions:

1. Are you opposed to the B.C. Electric Co.'s plan to erect overhead transmission lines through the municipality?

2. Are you in favor of maintaining the services of the Victoria Public Library?

3. Are you in favor of having all schools in Saanich placed under the jurisdiction of the Greater Victoria School Board?

At present Saanich schools are divided between school districts 61 and 63.

Are you in favor of a more extensive town planning program?

Former Officer In Polish Navy To Visit Here

A former senior officer with the Polish navy will be aboard the HMCS Magnificent when the RCN aircraft carrier visits Victoria, October 25 and November 5.

He is Capt. Conrad Namiesniowski, 53, who was chief of the Polish navy's signals department in 1939 and later acting chief of naval staff. When his country was overrun by Germany and Russia, he escaped through Yugoslavia to Greece and later commanded allied destroyers in the Battle of the Atlantic and the Normandy invasion.

Capt. Namiesniowski is a member of HMCS Carleton, naval reserve establishment at Ottawa. He has been assigned to HMCS Magnificent on temporary sea duty, and will also attend a course at the Maritime warfare school, Halifax.

The danger area extends from the Douglas Street intersection through to Burnside Road on the new highway. Speed is at present permitted at 40 miles per hour.

"It is difficult for an adult to cross now, and many of these children are stepping out by themselves for the first time," he added.

Mr. Ryall said that as well as presenting the petition Tuesday to the public works department, the concerned parents have phoned the school board offices. They were thanked for bringing the matter to the board's attention, but so far nothing has been done.

The parents point out that the Burnside crossing is at an angle, a further complication for kids and the surface of the highway is often scattered with small pebbles which make walking dangerous.

Travel Companies See Record Crowds

Influx and exodus of thousands of people are anticipated for the coming Labor Day week-end.

As the last holiday week-end before school opens and the last big "warm weather" holiday of the year, travel agencies have geared to cope with greatly increased passenger loads.

The CPR expects to handle approximately 40,000 passengers in its Vancouver-Seattle-Victoria, Gulf Islands and Vancouver-Nanaimo services; TCA will put on six extra flights Saturday and Monday between here and Vancouver; both the Black Ball Line to Port Angeles and up-island service of V.I. Coach Lines are expected to be "heavy."

The CPR warns people who want to ship cars to book immediately, while Black Ball, which does not take reservations for cars, urges motorists to be on the dock at least an hour before scheduled sailings. "We expect full loads," a spokesman said.

The coach lines will be running second sections where needed, and an especially heavy run is expected to the Saanich town fall fair Saturday and Monday.

With Labor Day week-end traditionally heavy on highway and swimming deaths, both city police and Olympic swim coach Archie McKinnon today issued warnings. Said deputy chief Harry Mercer to motorists: "Be careful. Let's have no tragedies. Take it easy."

Said Mr. McKinnon: "Don't be over-confident in the water. Don't swim alone. More people drown every year who can swim just a little bit, but not well enough."

What weather will be over the week-end is still debatable. But Saturday according to weatherman Bill Mackie promises to be good.

The United States is celebrating Labor Day also on Monday, and hotels in Port Angeles already have heavy reservations. The Empress Hotel here reports that while visitors expected will be numerous bookings were "under control."

Labor Council Opens New Hall

Victoria's new Labor Hall at 615 Pandora Avenue, will be officially opened at 2 p.m. Labor Day. Among prominent labor personnel present will be G. K. Gervin, Vancouver, who placed second in running for president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada at the recent Regina annual convention. The local musicians union will perform as part of opening ceremonies.

Here's a run-down of local week-end sports: The B.C. Senior A men's championship softball double-elimination tournament will be held at Royal Athletic Park Friday through Monday. (Friday's sports page will give added particulars.)

The North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen regatta will be held at Elk Lake Saturday and Sunday starting both days at 1 p.m. There is no admission, though a silver collection will be taken.

Canadian football league openers will be played Saturday and Monday with the Mayo Vampires vs. Navy at 2:00 p.m. Saturday in Macdonald Park and Navy vs. Oak Bay Monday, same place, same time.

In lacrosse, Victoria Shamrocks will tangle with PNE Indians in the fifth game of Inter-city Lacrosse League final series at 8:30 p.m. in Memorial Arena. Stock car racing will be held at Western Speedway Saturday and Monday starting at 7:30 p.m.

In addition, Victoria Individuals women's softball team will be contesting the B.C. championships at Kelowna over the week-end with Tillikum vying for the B.C. Senior B men's softball title at Aldergrove in the same period.

An event expected to attract hundreds of small fry and parents is the Soap Box Derby, setting underway at 9 a.m. Monday, co-sponsored by the Times, Wilson Motors and the Knights of Pythias. Contestants will run over a course from near Central Junior High School down Yates Street to Cook Street.

Also on Monday will be speedboat and hydroplane races at Willows Beach. Proceedings start at 1:30 p.m.

Fear Felt For Small School Pupils

Residents of Rowland's Heights in the Burnside area have petitioned the provincial public works department to end a hazard which they feel faces school children who must cross the new Island Highway outlet to get to Tillicum School.

School begins Tuesday and the residents are concerned because at present there are no safety zones to ensure safe crossing for the children.

Bernie Ryall, 3322 Rolston Crescent, told the Times today: "Something has to be done by Friday. It's the only working day left before school starts and about 18 primary grade students have to cross that stretch of highway."

The danger area extends from the Douglas Street intersection through to Burnside Road on the new highway. Speed is at present permitted at 40 miles per hour.

"It is difficult for an adult to cross now, and many of these children are stepping out by themselves for the first time," he added.

Mr. Ryall said that as well as presenting the petition Tuesday to the public works department, the concerned parents have phoned the school board offices. They were thanked for bringing the matter to the board's attention, but so far nothing has been done.

The parents point out that the Burnside crossing is at an angle, a further complication for kids and the surface of the highway is often scattered with small pebbles which make walking dangerous.

ASK THE TIMES

DOCTOR SAYS YOU MAY GET HORSE EATING PHIDEAUX PHOOD

What Your Chow Chews You Can Choose Too

By TONY DICKASON
"Move over, Phideaux, and share your canned calories with me!"

These aren't exactly household words—yet—but from Ottawa today comes advice from the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association that "when finances are low, dog and cat food makes a good meal."

Doubtless served "arf and arf."

Source of the statement is erudite Dr. Claude Kealey, executive director of the CVMA. The good doctor didn't say whether or not he occasionally nuzzles a can of Fido-fodder, but says other people do, though not as a part of their regular diet.

This is probably just as well as the base of much dog food is horse meat. It tastes okay, but if the man across the table shouts "whoa" during a meal, the diner is liable to choke to death.

Local veterinarians agree with Dr. Kealey that dog and cat food won't do anybody much harm. Said Dr. C. W. Newby: "Personally, I have never sampled it, but I've heard of several who have. If times got tough a person could live on it—it's meat with cereals added." Dr. Newby suggested that perhaps people these days were too far removed from basic elements in foods, so the odd can of cat-quikener, for instance, "might be a good thing." But he laughed a little as he said it.

Dr. Kealey he added: "He's a good man, very intelligent, and knows what he's talking about. I know him personally."

Dr. J. W. Smith said the food 'wouldn't hurt you. Main drawback was that manufacture was not as strictly supervised as human foods. However, he had never seen any evidence of ptomaine poisoning among animals due to consumption of canned commodities.

Dr. R. E. Cranston recalled that a neighbor of his returned home the other day, mind on other matters, opened a can of dog food and made himself a sandwich. "It didn't hurt him," said the doctor. Dog food, as such, was a "maintenance diet," and not suitable for growing dogs, he said.

We personally know a local dog, a setter, who sleeps while the family watches television, coming awake and sniffing the set when the singing commercial of a dog food manufacturer comes on.

He stands, erect and interested, while male voices int yapping dogs combine to sing: "Buy Blat Blat Dog Food. Arf. Arf. Arf." to the strains of the "Blue Danube."

Buy Crocus Bulbs Now
To Enjoy November Blooms

By PENNY SAVER

Interested in buying some crocus bulbs? I can imagine you giving forth with an emphatic, "No!" right now. But before you jump to the conclusion that I'm considering spring before any of us have even become used to the idea of fall, let me pause to explain.

It's the fall crocus I'm interested in. If you plant fall crocus bulbs now, they'll bloom in November. Just think, when all else in your garden is withering, refreshing pinky-mauve crocus blooms will pop up their pretty heads. I can think of nothing more inspiring on a dull-November day, than these flowers which, for the 25 cents per bulb, now, will make your garden more pleasant, then.

Not many people use egg cozies now-a-days, but you can still buy them. It strikes me that a mother finding difficulty in getting little Jimmie to eat his breakfast egg, would solve her problem by topping said egg with a bright fat cat, chicken or horse. The youngster would be fascinated.

Or, she might use an owl with big yellow eyes, a rabbit with big, floppy ears or a humpty-dumpty man with beady eyes. The cozies, which sell for 39 and 49 cents each, will surely brighten the breakfast table.

Those shrug sweaters are becoming more popular every day. Latest type is fringed all the way round the neckline, sides and back and also about the cuffs. My, they are attractive! Made of pure cotton wool, they come in yellow, red, white, blue, turquoise and pink, selling at $7.50 each.

Shrugs were dandy in summertime, to slip over a cotton dress when it got too breezy, and they're going to be even more practical in fall because they're warm and easy to slip on if the office heating system goes haywire.

Of Personal Interest

Mrs. William Hogg, RN, Parkview Apartments, has left to fly to Brandon en route to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Thomas, Hartney, Man. Mrs. Hogg will be bridesmatron for her sister, Miss Kathleen Thomas, at her wedding.

Dr. John Henry McLean, who graduated from Ontario Veterinary College at Guelph, Ont., has come to Victoria to make his home, and is on the staff of a well-known animal-hospital. His wife is the former Miss Shirley Hallor of this city. They are living at 1841 Oak Bay Avenue.

As a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. George Upward, Roseberry Avenue, who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last Sunday, Mrs. K. Schmeitz and Mrs. H. Hogg arranged a delightful party at their home. About 30 guests were present to offer good wishes to the couple who were presented with a gift of ruby glass. Mrs. Ronald Upward and Mrs. M. Wicks, daughter-in-law and niece of the celebrants, poured at the lace-covered table which was centred with a silver bowl of white and ruby-colored carnations flanked by lighted white candles. A wedding cake laced with a message of congratulations, was cut.

Kennedy-Yates Wedding
At First United Church

In a ceremony at First United Church, Saturday evening, Beatrice Kathleen Yates, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Barford, 54 Obed Avenue, exchanged wedding vows with James Finlay Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kennedy, Sooke. Baskets of pastel gladioli decorated the church for the ceremony, performed by Rev. Moir A. J. Waters. Malcolm Hamilton was organist. George Taylor gave the bride in marriage.

A full, floor-length gown of white pleated nylon net and lace over bridal satin was worn by the charming bride. Her veil of imported illusion net was held in place by a pearl-studded tiara and she carried a bouquet of pink rapture roses in cascade design.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Bertha Davies, sister of the bride, wore a gown of green nylon net with lace jacket and carried a crest-bouquet of gladioli. Bridesmaid was Miss Yolanda Pascoe, who was gowned in mauve nylon net and lace and carried a crest-bouquet of gladioli. Miss Coleen Lyall, junior bridesmaid, wore a gown of yellow net and carried a colonial bouquet. Harry Cross was best man and ushers were George Davies and Donald Gunn. Reception was held at 1778 Elgin Road, where toast to the bride was proposed by Earl Frost.

The bride's mother wore a grey suit, pink accessories and pink rosebuds, en corsage, for receiving guests.

A navy suit with white accessories was the bride's choice for a traveling ensemble. Her corsage was rosebuds and carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will live at Sooke.

Ceremony at First United
For Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes

Petite and dark-haired Betty-Lou Patterson wore a wedding dress of rose-pink corded silk for the ceremony at First United Church, Friday, which made her the bride of Harry Thomas Rhodes.

The dress was fashioned with Empire waistline and collar and cuffs were of matching pink satin. A bonnet-style hat of the dress fabric was trimmed with tiny white flowers and veiling and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, stocks and pink rosebuds.

Rev. Moir A. J. Waters performed the ceremony for the youngest daughter of Mrs. E. B. Patterson, 904 Darwin Road, and D. A. Patterson, Victoria, and the son of Capt. and Mrs. Harry Rhodes, 1175 Colville Road. Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church and Malcolm Hamilton played wedding music. Michael Rogers sang "The Lord's Prayer." Stuart Riach gave bride away.

As the bride's only attendant, Miss Marjorie Ledingham wore a suit of pale blue silk with matching hat and navy accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations, stocks and blue cornflowers.

Adams was best man and ushers were Gordon Rhodes and John Rhodes, brothers of the groom.

A dress of navy triple sheer was worn by mother of the bride for receiving guests at the reception at her home. She had white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mother of the groom chose a light brown flecked wool suit, black accessories and deep pink rosebuds, en corsage.

Dr. J. M. Sturdy proposed the toast to the bride. White candles and sweat peas surrounded the three-tier wedding cake. Sister of the bride, Miss U. B. Patterson, came from Seattle to attend the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for a honeymoon trip to Point No. Point, Vancouver Island. Mrs. Rhodes donned a white wool stole over her wedding ensemble and wore a pink rosebud corsage, for traveling.

The couple will live at 2320 Tod Road, Victoria.

Vows Exchanged
At Port Angeles

Miss Pearl R. Yanke, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. Yanke of Saskatchewan, was united in marriage to Mr. William G. Danchuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Danchuk at a ceremony performed recently in Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Port Angeles.

The bride wore a moire silk afternoon dress in blue with white hat and white accessories and white orchid corsage. Her attendant, Mrs. Ian Mellor, wore a cream colored afternoon dress and corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. Ian Mellor stood with the groom.

Later a reception was held at the Mellor home where the bride's table was centred with the wedding cake and sweet-heart roses.

After a honeymoon in Portland, Oregon, and Victoria, Mr. and Mrs. Danchuk will make their home at 1512 St. George's, North Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Galloway of Seattle are on a four-month tour of the British Isles and western Europe and Mrs. Galloway, the former Miss Edith McGill of this city, is keeping in touch with her parents in a series of newsy air mail letters, which Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McGill, Tattersall Drive, have consented to share with Times women's page readers.

ABOARD THE MAASDAM.

"The ship is beautiful, very clean and modern. One of the nicest rooms is the bright 'palm court' with bamboo walls and chairs, gay modernistic upholstery, many palms, an orchestra alcove and small dance floor.

"We are served our mid-morning snack here, bouillon and crackers or coffee and biscuits, while being entertained by the ship's trio, violin, piano and bass. This room is also used for tea dances and the 9 to mid-night dances.

"The food is terrific, servings enormous, five courses. Since Holland is known for its hams and cheeses we have them at every meal... a great variety. There are movies every night. I have been taking chess lessons in the morning and French lessons in the afternoon. A good many people aboard are Dutch and signs are written in four languages, Dutch, English, French and German. We get a daily paper which is about eight pages.

"Dropped anchor in a sheltered little bay at Cobb, Ireland, where it was sunny and warm, contrary to the usual weather, we were told.

Beautiful moonlight night, very calm and no breeze.

"Got up at 2 a.m. to see the light on Lands End and at 9.30 could see the cliffs on the southern shore of England. At 10.30 a.m. we went right by an aircraft carrier and were 'buzzed' three times by three Hawker-Furries.

"Our pilot came aboard and took us on past the Isle of Wight into Southampton where we docked at the lovely terminal. Beautiful trip on the boat train from Southampton and the sun was still up when we entered London at 7.15 p.m. We took one of those cute little taxis from Waterloo Station to our hotel and were thrilled to see St. Paul's dome, Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament. We went right out for a walk down Piccadilly to Green Park, then back to St. James Street.

LONDON, ENG.

"We are having the time of our lives! We've shopped along Bond, Regent and Oxford Street, have visited Madame Tussaud's, the Tower of London and we've seen the crown jewels. Isn't that 530 carat diamond fabulous?

"We took the boat down the Thames to Westminster Bridge, watched the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace and met a very nice man who escorted us over Westminster Cathedral and we went up to the top of the tower. We've also been to Windsor and Hampton Court and the British Museum and St. Paul's Cathedral. And we've had a motor drive to Stoke Poges, Beckenham Village and Bray.

"We saw John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson in 'A Day By the Sea' and it was an excellent play and we were guests of an attaché in the United States Embassy at the Royal Festival Hall.

"Had dinner at the United States Embassy, too, with the attaché, who is a special adviser to the Ambassador. He is also a chairman of the Fulbright committee and is primarily interested in education.

"We were lucky in getting two canceled bus seats for our two-day trip to Edinburgh and are off via west coast, through Windsor, Maidenhead, Stratford, Warwick, Chester, where we stay overnight, then on through Warrington, Preston, Lancaster, Windermere, Grasmere, Carlisle, Moffat and to Edinburgh.

"Our fare, $7 each, includes lunch, tea, dinner on both days, bed and breakfast at Chester, service charges plus, of course transportation.

Autumn Garden Party Brings Large Crowds to York Place

Under the mellow sunshine of the first day of autumn and in a garden framed in late-summer flowers, annual garden party of the St. John Ambulance Brigade was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. F. Armstrong and Mrs. M. F. Driscoll, on York Place.

Mrs. W. A. C. Bennett opened the affair at 2.30 p.m. and was presented with a corsage of a gardenia and roses. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. E. J. Harwood, area superintendent; Miss Gladys Hewlings, area officer for cadets; Mrs. M. Moore, corps officer, and Mrs. Marian Atkin, corps nursing officer. Cum of $350 was made.

Mrs. C. J. Kidd, Mrs. W. E. Enoch, Misses M. Wall and E. B. Browning were in charge at the gate.

Stalls were arranged on the lower lawn with the following brigade members in charge: Home cooking and chicken dinner, Mrs. K. Elston, Mrs. N. Umphrey, Mrs. M. Bell and Mrs. G. Birkett, Division No. 61; knitting, aprons and tombola, Mrs. A. C. Sinclair, Mrs. B. Anderson, Mrs. G. Harwood, Mrs. B. Schneider, Mrs. M. Whallen, Mrs. M. Hall and Mrs. A. Smith, Denton Holmes Division, No. 148.

Post office and home candy were conveyed by Mrs. B. D'Altroy, Mrs. J. Harvey and Miss M. Wood, Division No. 210; tickets on nurse doll with extra set of knitted clothes, Mrs. son.

Atkin, assisted by Misses Judy and Joanne Leggett, dressed in attractive blue and white nurses costumes. Mrs. Atkin also displayed the first aid kits she has created and made famous in St. John Ambulance work.

Superfluities were in charge of Misses Joy Hauser, Anne McAndrew and Ruth Phillips, Cadet Division, No. 61; fruit, flowers, vegetables and books, Mrs. F. H. Hurley, Mrs. J. R. Paris and Mrs. E. A. Brock, Oak Bay Division; bingo, Mrs. E. L. Aubel, Misses Beatrice Schneider and Violet Webber, Oak Bay Cadets.

Cadet Division, No. 61, was also in charge of the pop and treasure hunt with Misses M. Sampson, Beverley Smith, Patie Boulter, Mary DuBédat, Shirley Hauser and Patsy Perry, the conveners. A grab bag was arranged by Peggy Boulter and Evelyn Noble.

Tea was served at small tables on the upper lawn. Seated at the head table with Mrs. Bennett were Mrs. Ralph Chetwynd, Mrs. E. J. Harwood, Mrs. Charles Smith and her mother, Mrs. Crowther.

In charge of tea arrangements were Mrs. E. Thomas, Mrs. R. Felton, Mrs. T. W. A. Gray, Mrs. J. Paterson, Mrs. D. Cook, Mrs. I. Wright, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Neal, Mrs. R. Wood and Miss Jessie Simson.

Makes History in Church Life in City

By ELIZABETH FORBES

Rev. Laura Butler, newly appointed minister of Christian education at the Metropolitan United Church, has the quiet assurance that comes with a dedicated purpose in life. At the same time she has a good sense of humor and her blue eyes shine with a friendly interest in people.

Her dark hair is cut short, for convenience, and falls in soft waves around her face, her skin is deeply tanned at present, from a motor trip west, that took her from Washington, D.C., down through Florida to New Orleans and Miami, then across Texas to the Grand Canyon in Colorado and north to this city.

She minimizes the fact that it is the first time in the history of the larger churches in Victoria, that a woman has been appointed assistant to the minister and hastens to tell you she hopes she will prove worthy of the trust.

"I only met Dr. James two weeks ago," she says with a twinkle in her friendly blue eyes, "so you see they took me 'sight unseen.' Now it will be up to me." She was ordained in the Methodist Church of the United States but her credentials will be transferred here.

KNOWS VICTORIA

Laura Butler was born in Victoria and, although she left the city when she was quite small, she has returned on visits many times—at first to see her aunt, Mrs. Grace Baker, 1114 Pembroke Street, with whom she is living at present and later her father, Rev. John R. Butler, a former Methodist minister, now retired and living here.

She grew up in Seattle and graduated from University of Washington with a BA degree. Then she taught school for a short time. While she was attending university she had a student pastorate at Wesley Methodist Church. She also organized and built a new Methodist Church at Skyways, within Seattle's city limits, a church that had 200 members and 300 in its Sunday school.

As the urge within her strengthened, she finally decided on the ministry as a career and immediately went to Boston for training at the University School of Theology, where she completed her masters degree. She is now reading for her doctorate.

Extra-curricular duties during her stay in Boston included work in the Harvard Congregational Church at Brookline, Mass.

UNITED AFFILIATE

"So you see I am qualified on two sides to be in the United Church," she says with another friendly smile. "I've been with Methodist and Congregational churches. We do use Presbyterian supplies in our Sunday schools, perhaps that will do for the third side."

Miss Butler graduated from the Boston University with her bachelor degree in systematic theology—STB—equivalent to a BD in Canada. "Just a different terminology," she says. Her great interest is in youth movements in the church and she is decided in telling you that where there are youth problems there are also parent problems.

Her strong face sets in a more serious mold as she explains that to reach the parents it is necessary first, to win the confidence of the boys and girls.

Ordained minister, Miss Laura Butler will preach morning sermon in Metropolitan United Church on Sunday.

"If you do not gain this confidence, then you cannot do anything to help," she says.

Laura Butler preaches her first sermon in this city on Sunday morning in Metropolitan United Church. Her subject is "What Is That In Thine Hand?"

Asked to define her title more clearly, she thought for a minute and then said, "Christian Community Concern."

And that, in a nutshell, describes Laura Butler, for as long as she is in Victoria her concern will be for the young people of the city and she will be working with all her strength and knowledge to help them to take a healthy interest in their community and in their church.

OF PERSONAL INTEREST

For Margaret McIntyre

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Miss Margaret McIntyre, honoring Miss Christine White, whose marriage takes place this month. The bride-to-be was presented with a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mother of the bride, Mrs. C. White, and mother of the groom, Mrs. S. Goyette, were presented with corsages of pink and white carnations. Gifts were concealed in a decorated umbrella. Guests were Mrs. M. Chisholm, Seattle; Mrs. C. McIntyre, Mrs. G. Hess, Mrs. I. Proberts, Mrs. M. Gray, Misses Rhoda McLennan, Pat Curtis, Shirley Goyette and Kay Morrison.

San Francisco Holiday

Mrs. Gwen Downes and her daughter, Miss Gwladys Downes left on Wednesday by plane for San Francisco where they will spend the next 10 days with Miss Marguerite Downes.

Anniversary Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Wald Skillings celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary on Wednesday with a dinner party at the Empress Hotel. Those present included their five sons, Waldo Jr., David, Hugh, Patrick and Roger; also Premier and Mrs. W. A. C. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. E. Harris, Miss Janet McRae, New York City; Mrs. M. Hovendon, Westfield, N.J.; Mr. R. Bowden, Nutley, N.J., and Mrs. T. Bowden.

Holiday in St. Paul

Miss Elizabeth Yardley returned today from St. Paul, Minn., where she has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Yardley. Dr. Yardley is assistant professor in the department of mines and metallurgy at University of Minnesota. Miss Yardley also visited in Regina, Sask., with Miss Doreen Evans, formerly of this city.

Montreal Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Brooks and Miss Dorothy Brooks of Montreal are the guests of Mrs. Brooks' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hill, 1210 Monterey Avenue.

Going to Jasper

Among those planning to take part in the Totem Pole Golf Tournament played at Jasper Park Lodge in the Canadian Rockies, commencing on Labor Day, are the following Victorians: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Husband, Mr. R. M. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. C. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Leach, Rev. W. G. Wilson and Dr. W. M. (BB Plus) "THE STUDENT PRINCE" (Royal): This is a beautiful thing as far as color and theme are concerned and boasts some of Sigmund Romberg's best-remembered scores.

But owing to its very composition it cannot be awarded a higher rating by this column. For it purports to be what it is not.

This version of "The Student Prince" is adulterated. It is not only Romberg but it is garnished by three additional numbers which, in this column's opinion, add nothing.

BUT, MOST IMPORTANT, the lead role, that of the dashing Prince Karl, is a duet—acting by Edmund Purdom, voice courtesy of Mario Lanza.

Used to Hollywood's miraculous techniques that are without peer in the motion picture world, one applauds the sleight-of-hand one reads about, that of adding snow to snowless mountain peaks, actors performing against authentic scenery taken by camera crews months previously, ersatz moons and plastic man-eating octopi. But one nevertheless rebels at having to watch an actor "gold fish" a song synchronized to a voice on a soundtrack in a musical the calibre of "The Student Prince."

WITH HOLLYWOOD'S wealth of talent surely it is not asking the impossible to demand a singer to be cast in the lead role of a musical? Of course it isn't.

Now that this has been said, however, it is fitting here to pay tribute to Miss Ann Blyth for her able performance, acting-wise and singing-wise. At least her voice was her

B.C. Resolution On Divorce Before Bar Association

WINNIPEG (CP)—A British Columbia resolution recommending that desertion, cruelty and incurable insanity be recognized as grounds for divorce was presented Wednesday to the civil justice section of the Canadian Bar Association.

The section sent it along to the resolutions committee. If that committee approves it, the resolution will be debated Saturday by the general meeting of the association.

The resolution says that for a number of years the B.C. and Saskatchewan sections have requested changes in the grounds for divorce in the two provinces.

Newfoundland Government Publishes Names of Drunks

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Regular publication of the names of drunken drivers whose licenses have been suspended promises to become one of the most widely read columns in Newfoundland.

Monday's publication—a three-column advertisement under the government emblem—was the first since a new act came in force May 10 but government officials think it will become a regular monthly feature. The act does not specify how often the lists will be published.

All the suspensions were for drunk driving and the lesser charge of impaired driving. But if a license is suspended for any other reason the owner's name will also be published.

Fresh from Kellogg's

Where'd they all go?

Even without free-handed little girls like this, more families ran out of Kellogg's Corn Flakes this morning than any other cereal. This is happening all the time. That's because Kellogg's Corn Flakes just naturally taste better to more people than any other cereal. Always have. Still do. No wonder so many women pick up a spare package of Kellogg's Corn Flakes every time they buy any cereal of any kind.

To suit every family's need, Kellogg's now offers the new Handi-Pak, too... eight handy "personal portion" boxes of Corn Flakes just right for individual servings.

Duke Visits Canada's Eskimos

One of the happiest parts of the Duke of Edinburgh's Canadian visit was undoubtedly his trip to the Barren Lands of the Coppermine Eskimos north of the Arctic Circle. Among these smiling silent Eskimos the Duke was able to relax from the eternal flashbulbs and throngs of people. He shook hands with the men, smiled at the women and like a young uncle poked the chubby babies with a finger. ## Fiction

Our choice for you this week is "The Town Where I Was Born" by John Rhodes Sturdy, a boy-girl story with a small town background. "Animal Trouble" by Elizabeth Orr is the title of our short story telling of the complications which arose when a small animal-loving boy visited the livestock section of a city market.

They Sent the Wrong Men to Jail

How accurate is the memory of an eyewitness? In quite a number of cases errors in identification have led to the conviction of innocent people—should this be allowed to happen? Read Stanley Handman's article in Weekend Magazine in which he says the police line-up system is far from infallible.

The Hated Captain

Humphrey Bogart plays the part of the hated Captain Queeg in the movie version of "The Caine Mutiny," recently filmed in Technicolor. The story is rapidly becoming the most famous naval squabble of all time. Watch for photostory in our Saturday edition.

Miracle In A Wheel Chair

To be told "You will never walk again" is probably one of the hardest statements to accept. Life seems at an end and the years ahead loom cheerless and forbidding. In Winnipeg, however, this need not be the case, as the Wheel Chair Centre organized by a group of business women, help women paraplegics and polio victims to be independent and live happily. ## U.S. Export—Opera Stars—Has Boom Year; Steber, Stevens, Thebom in Full Voice

NEW YORK—Opera singers used to be something America imported from Europe. Now the U.S. is exporting them. American prima donnas and operatic heroes are creating a big demand for their talents on the other side of the ocean. This reversal stems from the Second World War, when American-born and trained singers got their big chance with opera managers because imported talent was cut off. After the war, Europe began to catch up with America's operatic talent in full voice abroad.

The Metropolitan's blonde glamor girl, Eleanor Steber, brought a western touch to Italy when she sang the horseback-riding, gun-twirling role of Minnie in Puccini's "Girl of the Golden West" at the Florence Music Festival. Never very successful, the Puccini opera was revived because festival managers were convinced Miss Steber could give it the proper clang-bang. She also gave it, according to reports from Florence, "the longest kiss and best horseman."

Mer tenor Ramon Vinay, who was born in South America but trained in the U.S., opened both the Bayreuth and Holland festivals this summer for the second time. In Europe, the role of "Othello" has become almost his exclusive domain.

Another tenor, American-born Eugene Conley, was one of the original vocal exports five years ago. Another pioneer was soprano Lily Windsor, one of the first Americans in years to receive a season's contract from the Rome Opera House.

Long-tressed Blanche Thebom, who won great success at the Vienna Music Festival this year, stopped off first in Iceland at U.S. government request to offset Communist cultural propaganda.

And in England, the Met's Margaret Harshaw had revived for her the entire Wagnerian ring-cycle of four operas—not once, but twice. Until a few years ago Miss Harshaw had been singing secondary mezzo-soprano roles here—until she decided for herself she was really a dramatic soprano.

Said one anonymous star, back from the export circuit: "This has finally give us the opportunity to portray the kind of roles we would otherwise have no chance to do here."

40-Year Absence Spanned

Frederick George Simpson, 73, of 631 Pandora, met his three brothers this summer for the first time in over 40 years.

On his way east for a business trip, Fred ran into Melville in the latter's home, Calgary, but neither recognized the other until introductions were made.

The other two were still living in their original home, Brockville, where Fred spent many an hour catching up with the lives of Elmer, 79, and Willie, 59, whom he hadn't seen for 43 years.

CAROL RICHARDS' ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1954

AIRIES (March 21 to April 19)—Your day to decide early how you can perform your everyday labor with less strain, then the latter part of day finds all kinds of improved ways to do exactly that.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20)—General feeling of well-being in air gives you chance to get together with all vital to your success; conference with everyone produces fine results. Get dolled-up early, keep very active all day. Be happy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)—You are teaming with good ideas for having better, harmonious conditions at home, with family. Make sure you utilize to fullest advantage, not forgetting money matters can be improved today also.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21)—Romantic feelings in air brings out your wonderful ability to enjoy loved ones more than most persons; get together with them, tell others of your devotion and reap results right now.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21)—Have you put your nose to grindstone eliminating much of your surplus pride, so you can work in harness with others this beautiful day for good, hard work? Get on plane of good, hard labor today.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)—Contacting every type of friend, acquaintance, getting out of that reticent mood that so often envelops you, and being truly interested in joint undertakings.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN FRIDAY...
Friday's child is one of those very down-to-earth youngsters who really has a knack for taking any idea presented to him, or to her, and making it really work in some unique or unusual fashion. Seeing as possible, which, from the horoscope, comes from diligently saving small amounts from infancy. Try to get your child to investigate modern methods that can take the stigma away from the outmoded, for in this work your tot has a positive genius.

BERT ACOSTA

Famed Flier Dies Penniless In Sanitarium

Bert Acosta Flew
Atlantic With Byrd

DENVER, Colo. (UP)—Bert Acosta, trans-Atlantic flier who fell from the glory of a ticker tape parade in New York to the despair of jail, poverty and sickness, died Wednesday.

Acosta, 60, died of tuberculosis and cancer. He was a charity patient at the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society's sanitarium in suburban Spivak. In 1927, one month after Charles Lindbergh soloed across the Atlantic, Acosta piloted Adm. Richard Byrd's tri-motored Ford "America" from Long Island to France. Their goal was Paris, but after a 32-hour flight over the stormy water they circled above an overcast for 10 hours.

Acosta finally spotted a break in the clouds and nosed earthward. The "America" crash-landed in the surf, 12 feet from the French shore.

Acosta, Byrd and two other companions on the hazardous flight paraded in triumph down Broadway on their return to New York.

But Acosta lost his pilot's license for stunting and was fined $1,000 for flying a plane that had been seized by a sheriff. Soon he was jailed for five months, charged with abandoning his second wife and their two children.

He went to Spain to fly for the Loyalists, but came home after three weeks and dropped from sight.

Acosta, the son of a prominent San Diego, Calif., family, came to public attention again two years ago when he collapsed on a New York street. He was penniless and ravaged by advanced tuberculosis.

He was admitted to the Denver Sanitarium, Admiral Byrd's hearing of his former pilot's plight, kept in close touch.

But Acosta developed cancer recently, and soon realized that he must die. A daughter, Mrs. Bertina Sananto of Los Angeles, came to his side.

"Dad told me that he didn't want any fuss or publicity, other than to thank the people who have helped him and done so much for him," Mrs. Sananto said.

"He died among friends, believe me."

Flo All Ready For Big Swim

World Champion Attempts 32-Mile
Ontario Lake Challenge Monday

By DON HUNT, Special Correspondent of The Times
TORONTO—Channel swimming champion Florence Chadwick will tackle the longest swim of her career on Monday, but she thinks it will be easier than the Strait of Juan de Fuca which defeated her Aug. 9.

FLO CHADWICK

Nova Scotia Prepares for Hurricane Hit

HALIFAX, N.S. (BUP)—Hurricane Dolly, sweeping up the Atlantic Coast, threatened today to force the air force to divert the course of the luxury liner carrying the Duchess of Kent and her daughter, Princess Alexandra, to the Maritime.

The royal visitors were scheduled to reach Halifax late this afternoon, but the RCA said their plane might be ordered to land at the Greenwood, N.S., air force base if weather conditions at the Shearwater naval base at Dartmouth indicated it would be safer to make a switch.

Hurricane Dolly was reported moving toward this area at 28 miles an hour, but some distance seaward of its predecessor Carol which turned inland two days ago to go on a spree of destruction in eastern Canada and the United States. Weather officials said it was too soon to indicate whether the new storm would switch its course landward.

Canada Favors Early Meeting Of NATO Council

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada has informed its NATO partners that it favors an early and special meeting of the North Atlantic council to discuss the German question.

Officials said today Canada's view has been made known through embassies and legations abroad to the other 13 North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries.

The North Atlantic council is scheduled to hold its regular full-dress annual meeting in Paris in December. Canada feels that in light of French rejection of the European Defense Community, a special meeting should be held earlier.

No date was specified by Canada but officials said they believed the meeting of foreign ministers should be held at least by early October.

Canada Wins Cricket

LONDON (AP)—Ken Trestrail of Toronto, 27-year-old star of the Canadian touring cricket team, paved the way for a thrilling three-run victory over Middlesex today. Trestrail, a West Indian by birth, rattled up 100 off the Middlesex bowling and gave the Canadians lead of 199.

Her swim across Lake Ontario will be 32 miles and she expects to be 18 hours in the water.

It is fresh water, harder to swim in than salt, but the lack of currents, swells and tide, and higher temperature make it easier, she says.

Present plan is for Miss Chadwick to enter the water of Lake Ontario at Youngstown, New York, at 11 o'clock Monday night and, if she makes it she'll come out of the water on the Canadian National Exhibition waterfront at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

To get in shape, she's been swimming daily at least 10 miles in five hours.

In addition she's practicing near Youngstown at the Niagara River mouth, about the only spot in the swim where currents could foul her up.

The CNE swim will be Miss Chadwick's longest attempt. It will leave her in the water longer than ever before.

WATER WARM

"I'm anxious to find out if the advantages of fresh water outweigh the disadvantages. I won't know until Tuesday night whether the lake swim will prove to be a greater obstacle and challenge. Right now, I think I'll make it because the water is warm—about 60."

That may be warm for Miss Chadwick, but Torontonians shiver when they think of anyone swimming for 18 hours in Lake Ontario. A change of wind can shoot the temperature down to the mid-50's and Florence admits it if it gets below that, she'll be in trouble.

The $10,000 Lake Ontario swim, sponsored by the Canadian National Exhibition, was supposed to be Flo's last. It has never been done by anyone. But she said the 18.3 miles of ice-cold water between Victoria and Port Angeles is the one thing keeping her from making her retirement from channel swimming permanent. She plans to make another effort at it next summer.

"It's the Mount Everest of channel swimming. Conquer it and you have nothing worth conquering left," she said after doing her daily grind in preparation for her Labor Day attempt.

"That's a real challenge and I just can't retire without trying again. And this time I'm confident I can make it."

NOT IMPOSSIBLE

To Flo nothing is impossible, that includes the swim with a water temperature of 46.

"I figure I can only stay in water that cold for ten hours. I was making no headway. Next time, I intend to practice more in cold water and have the local experts chart the best course. Last time, they said I was following the wrong route and they were right."

"That's a big thing to long distance swimmers. The wrong course means failure. The right one, a possible record."

Unless the lake swim changes her mind, right now she rates the Strait of Juan de Fuca toughest, Gibraltar second. Seems, the English Channel runs a poor fourth.

After the lake swim, Flo intends to take a lengthy vacation in Hawaii.

"I'll be nice to get away from doing four hours a day but I wouldn't change things for the world. I'll be back training next year for Victoria and if I make it, I'll really retire this time. The body can only take so much."

MARILYN MAY TRY

TORONTO (BUP)—Marilyn Bell, 17-year-old swimmer, says she'll decide Sunday whether to race channel swimmer Florence Chadwick 32 miles across Lake Ontario next week.

The Canadian National Exhibition which promised Miss Chadwick $10,000 if she completed the solo swim made no provision for a contest in the swim. But Miss Bell said she may try the swim, too, if her father, Syd Bell, gives his okay.

Amateur Athlete of the Year

Lacrosse is king sport of the moment and the reigning monarch who has done so much to make it so is Fred "Whitey" Severson of the Shamrocks. Severson Wednesday night was presented with the Victoria Daily Times "Amateur Athlete of the Year" award for 1953-54. Presentation of the award was made by Times managing editor Les Fox between halves of Wednesday's playoff lacrosse game between PNE Indians and Victoria Shamrocks. Shortly after the ceremony Severson scored a goal, but it wasn't enough as the Rocks went down to a 12-9 defeat. (Times photo by Halkett.)

Adenauer Demands Full Sovereignty

West German Chancellor Indicates He Expects Freedom Before Western Defense Talks Begin

BONN (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government called today for "full and undiminished" sovereignty for West Germany and indicated it expects that freedom before—new talks are held on a German contribution to Western defense.

Felix von Eckhardt, federal press chief, told a press conference:

"There is no such thing as 90 per cent sovereignty. We want full and undiminished sovereignty."

Von Eckhardt said "The concept of sovereignty has been confused through the Allied 'West German peace contract.' This contract was supposed to restore limited sovereignty to West Germany when she started rearming. Under it, the Allies would have retained special rights here.

The press chief's statement made plain that Bonn will be unwilling to accept this contract or any variation of it as a substitute for full sovereignty.

He indicated, however, that West Germany would welcome an eight-power conference of the United States, Britain and the six countries of the original EDC group to consider a new defence arrangement.

Reds Caught Trying to Sabotage SEATO

Ringleader Held
In Philippines

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines army announced tonight it has broken a "sinner" trying to sabotage the Southeast Asia security conference opening here Monday.

The army said Dr. Hong Ki Khung, alias Kyung Ki Chang, 35-year-old Korean national, is under arrest in connection with the plot.

The doctor had "voluminous" papers pertaining to mechanics and organizational procedures of the forthcoming SEATO conference, including drafts of various proposals of participating nations...

The announcement added intelligence agents of three governments have established that the doctor is "a member of a gigantic international espionage ring organized specifically to spy on the forthcoming top level talks..."

SEEK PACIFIC CHARTER

The arrest came as the Philippines sought action by working committees on a "Pacific Charter" against Communist aggression.

President Ramon Magsaysay said he will seek adoption by the conference opening here Monday of a four-power charter pledging the eight countries to:

1. Support the rights of all peoples in Southeast Asia to freedom and independence.

2. Take steps insuring the progress of Southeast Asian countries toward self-rule and independence.

3. Work jointly for economic, social and cultural development of Southeast Asian countries to raise standards of living and to strengthen their economies and social security programs.

4. Act jointly and individually against any force that would attempt to undermine or destroy the sovereignty, territorial integrity or freedom of Southeast Asian governments.

The union's Westinghouse conference board announced Wednesday night it had voted "overwhelmingly" to stage the "walkout after meeting with IUE president James B. Carey."

Immigration Official Defends Department

Fortier Answers Critics of Immigration
Policy Claimed 'Shocking' Procedure

WINNIPEG (CP)—A federal government official said today no immediate changes are planned in the procedure followed at overseas offices of the federal immigration department, which came under sharp criticism Wednesday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association.

Laval Fortier, deputy minister of citizenship and immigration, said in an interview the immigration act is constantly being studied but the department sees no need at present for a change.

A three-man sub-committee of the bar association which has spent 2½ years investigating abuses in immigration procedure charged that the department had been guilty of "backlog" procedural practices in its worldwide offices. Results of the investigation were revealed by sub-committee chairman J. H. McDonald of Ottawa.

He said the British delegation found "all kinds of delusions" among the Chinese about the West.

Attlee said also that China is "heading toward a terrible problem if population increases persist."

He explained that the Chinese seem to think the bigger the population is the better everything will be.

U.S. Textiles Dumped In Canada Hees Says

MONTREAL (BUP)—George Hees, national president of the Progressive Conservative Association, charged today that United States textiles were being dumped in Canada, underselling goods produced in Canadian mills and giving rise to the current textile depression in the country.

Hees told a luncheon of party officials that Revenue Minister J. J. McCann "flatly denied" there was any dumping when the situation was brought to the attention of the federal government three years ago.

Later, he contended, the government produced anti-dumping legislation which he described as "too cumbersome and unwieldy to be effective."

Hees said events had "proven" that the government's proposed method of stopping dumping would not work.

He maintained that the government's legislation "sounds fine in theory," but did not produce the described results in practice.

"American mills... are still able to clear out end-of-run goods in Canada at fire-sale prices, which are far below the price at which the goods are sold on the American market during the regular selling season," Hees said.

The Progressive Conservative official said the government "must take the responsibility for the desperate position in which many thousands of Canadian textile workers and their families find themselves today."

VANCOUVER (CP)—Nancy Hansen, a tall brunette from suburban Burnaby, was named Miss PNE of 1954 before 7,000 spectators at the Pacific National Exhibition Wednesday night.

The 17-year-old beauty, chosen from 18 contestants, was presented with a $1,000 cheque along with the title.

Airliner Hit Three Times By Lightning

LONDON (Reuters)—A British airliner arrived undamaged at London airport today after being struck by lightning three times on a flight from Montreal.

The British Overseas Airways Constellation carried 32 passengers, among them five babies. It was first struck by lightning an hour out from Montreal.

Later a double flash rocked it and shattered a compass. The pilot decided it was too risky to go on to the first stopping point at Gander, so he made a detour to Boston.

But Boston airport was waterlogged and the plane was diverted to New York, where the passengers stayed overnight.

The BOAC plane resumed its flight to Gander and Prestwick this morning. Low clouds at the Scottish airport later forced the Constellation to land at London airport.

One passenger said: "When the first burst of lightning hit the plane we lurched backwards and forwards in our seats. We thought the plane was going to blow up."

PITTSBURGH (UP)—The 55,000 Westinghouse Electric Corp. employees represented by the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers will strike at midnight Sept. 10 in 20 terms, unless their contract is agreed to.

The union's Westinghouse conference board announced Wednesday night it had voted "overwhelmingly" to stage the "walkout after meeting with IUE president James B. Carey."

Labor Group Leaders See 'Less Rigidity in China'

HONG KONG (AP)—Clement Attlee disclosed today that he countered appeals by Red China's Mao Tse-tung that he try to engineer a shift in United States foreign policy by suggesting Mao urge Russia to mend her ways.

The former British prime minister, just arrived with 11 other touring British Labor party leaders from an 18-day visit in Red China and three days in Moscow, revealed for the first time details of his talk with Mao.

He said when Mao urged that the British Labor men try to influence the U.S. to pull out of the Formosa straits and cease rearming Japan and West Germany, he, Attlee, suggested in turn that the Chinese Communist chief use his influence with the Kremlin to try to make Russia:

1. Give her people more freedom.

2. Ease restrictions on her satellite states.

3. Stop trying to undermine other governments.

4. Reduce Soviet armaments.

Attlee said neither he nor Mao made any promises regarding the other's proposals.

MURDERED WRONG MAN; 16 TO DIE

UMATATA, South Africa (CP)—Sixteen Africans, aged between 20 and 25, were sentenced to death here today for the murder of the wrong man—a 56-year-old African, Nono Joloza, whom they mistook for his son.

The gang sneaked up on Nono's hut and spotted the figure of a man asleep under blankets. Thinking it was his son, a member of a rival gang, they attacked him with axes and hacked him to death.

The crew of three was taken off by two other tenders, the Primo and Alyeska. All three vessels are owned by Farwest Fishermen Inc., Anacortes salmon canning company.

Manager Mel Halgren of Farwest identified the Marguerite's crewmen as Wiley Perry, skipper; Durwood Haner and C. M. Compton, all of Anacortes.

The Marguerite sank at Iceberg Point at the southwest tip of Lopez.

Halgren said the cause of the mishap hadn't been determined yet. Efforts were being made to salvage the boat and its cargo of salmon.

Dawley Back In Vancouver?

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Oakalla prison escapee Clifford Dawley, who is sought by police throughout the continent, may still be in the greater Vancouver area.

A man resembling the escaped convict was reported "hanging around" a house in the Point Grey district.

Mrs. E. Boberg, wife of the gardener at the house, said the man had been around the area since last Friday. On Sunday, she told police, he asked her for a bucket, saying he was a friend of the house owner.

Mrs. Boberg said she gave a bucket to the man and he and a woman companion disappeared in the direction of the Fraser Valley.

McIver earlier said his department wanted at least one representative on hand when Henderson is released by U.S. immigration officials.

Allies Agree on Russian Note

LONDON (Reuters)—United States, Britain and French officials today agreed on the terms of the reply to Russia's recent proposals for a new East-West conference on Germany and European security.

The note is understood in diplomatic quarters here to amount to a rejection of the proposals unless Russia undertakes to grant free elections throughout Germany and to end the occupation of Austria.

Noted U.S. Racing Owner Suspended for Misconduct

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Andy Crevelin, owner of this year's Kentucky Derby winner, Deter mine, had his owner's license suspended indefinitely today by the California horse racing board for conduct detrimental to racing.

The suspension followed an investigation by stewards at Del Mar race track into Crevelin's statements to a Kentucky thoroughbred publication, The Blood-Horse, that he did not try to win with his horses the first few times they entered races.

The stewards conducted their investigation at the request of the racing board and

For Big SwimWorld Champion Attempts 32-Mile
Ontario Lake Challenge Monday

By DON HUNT, Times Special Correspondent

TORONTO—Channel swimming champion Florence Chadwick will tackle the longest swim of her career on Monday, but she thinks it will be easier than the Strait of Juan de Fuca which defeated her Aug. 9.

Her swim across Lake Ontario will be 32 miles and she expects to be 18 hours in the water.

It is fresh water, harder to swim in than salt, but the lack of currents, swells and tide, and higher temperature make it easier, she says.

Present plan is for Miss Chadwick to enter the water of Lake Ontario at Youngstown, New York, at 11 o'clock Monday night and, if she makes it, she'll come out of the water on the Canadian National Exhibition waterfront at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

To get in shape, she's been swimming daily at least 10 miles in five hours.

In addition she's practicing near Youngstown at the Niagara River mouth, about the only spot in the swim where currents could foul her up.

The CNE swim will be Miss Chadwick's longest attempt. It will keep her in the water longer than ever before.

WATER WARM

"I'm anxious to find out if the advantages of fresh water outweigh the disadvantages. I won't know until Tuesday night whether the lake swim will prove to be a greater obstacle and challenge. Right now, I think I'll make it because the water is warm—about 60."

That may be warm for Miss Chadwick, but Torontonians shiver when they think of anyone swimming for 18 hours in Lake Ontario. A change of wind can shoot the temperature down to the mid-30's and Florence admits if it gets below that, she'll be in trouble.

The $10,000 Lake Ontario swim, sponsored by the Canadian National Exhibition, was supposed to be Flo's last. It has never been done by anyone. But she said the 18.3 miles of ice-cold water between Victoria and Port Angeles is the one thing keeping her from making her retirement from channel swimming permanent. She plans to make another effort at it next summer.

NEW YORK (UP)—Allie Reynolds came to the aid of starter Whitey Ford and retired the last two batters in the ninth inning today as the New York Yankees moved to within 3½ games of the American League lead with a 3-2 victory over the first-place Cleveland Indians.

Two errors by Cleveland first baseman Vic Wertz in the sixth inning helped the Yankees break a 1-1 tie with two unearned runs. Larry Doby hit a bases-empty homer that knocked out Ford in the ninth.

Victory gave the Yankees a 2-1 edge in the three-game series.

Cleveland moved into a 1-0 lead in the fifth inning on a home run by Sam Dente. After Mickey Mantle hit a homer to tie the score in the sixth the Yankees went on to pick up their pair of unearned tallies.

A three-man sub-committee of the bar association which has spent 2½ years investigating abuses in immigration procedure charged that the department had been guilty of "shocking" procedural practices in its world-wide offices. Results of the investigation were revealed by sub-committee chairman J. H. McDonald of Ottawa.

Commenting on the criticism, Mr. Fortier said immigration inspectors are like judges—one might decide one way while in the same circumstances another might decide the opposite way.

The inspectors must decide a case on both the facts and the merit of the individual before them. Sometimes one inspector might decide a man was sincere and another inspector might decide he was lying.
